Big Ice Show to be Staged at Great Lakes Exposition

Long-Awaited, "The Good Earth" Opens on Sunday Evening, April 25, at the Cass Theatre

Louise Rainer and Paul Muni in "The Good Earth"

THE dramatic story of China's teeming millions, their struggles, their hardships, and the intensely human heartbeats of the great and title known nation, is transcribed from Pearl S. Buck's novel to the talking screen in "The Good Earth" starring Paul Muni and Louise Rainer, which opens on Sunday evening, April 25th, at the Cass Theatre. It will be shown twice daily thereafter at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m. Tickets are now on sale for all performances of this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer triumph.

LOSEY CORNERS

Rev. C. E. Bagwell, of Detroit, alternate minister at Hope Chapel, was the speaker Sunday evening. William Horie of Middle Belt Road, who was injured in an auto accident seven weeks ago, returned to the hospital to have the cast removed from his arm. The injury is one that may leave his arm stiff and useless, however, the doctors have hopes it may have healed correctly.

There will be an installation of officers Monday for the P. T. A. at the Wilcox school.

Rev. Bagwell brought the pleasant news that a donation of $38.00 has been received from Hillcrest to go to the building fund for Hope Chapel. He also brought news that the work of incorporating the church has been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fredericks were Sunday dinner guests of Edwin Tamm and family. Mr. and Mrs. George Strassburger are living with the latter's mother, Mrs. G. A. Mansfield, for the summer.
