W. T. MILLER WILL SPEAK TO EXCHANGEITES The Exchange Club of Farmington has obtained W. T. Miller of Ferndale, as the guest speaker at the regular noon day meeting on Wednesday, March 14...

Mr. Miller has served in this same capacity at a number of Exchange Clubs and comes to Farmington well recommended. He has appeared on the program of many historical clubs, community groups, historical organizations, etc. Having made a particular study of early Michigan history, with emphasis on the local county phase of this type of research, Mr. Miller is often classed as an authority in this line...

Mr. Miller is a member of the Michigan Historical Society, the Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society, having served as an officer of the latter organization at various times. Known as an historical research worker, Mr. Miller's knowledge of much local historical lore is known to extend to many parts of Michigan, particularly the older portions of this vicinity. His service as a guest speaker includes such cities as Port Huron, St. Clair, Hamtramck, Detroit, Pontiac, Birmingham and Jackson, as well as a long list of other localities...

Those who have boys and girls' other members of their own family or close friends, now serving in overseas theatres of war, will know the wonderful work being done by the American Red Cross. Almost as soon as landings are made, the Red Cross is right there, giving assistance where it is most needed, and reassuring our invasion forces. In remote corners of the world our service boys and girls find Red Cross centers established, bringing a touch of home to them...

Many are the instances one might cite in the home service field of the Red Cross, the help that is given in establishing contacts between the folks at home, and service personnel and countless other instances where the Red Cross has been the only medium for exchange of messages or information. And one must not forget the Red Cross services performed right here at home. In case of disaster, due to floods or fire, or any other circumstances, the Red Cross is first on hand to help alleviate the suffering of the victims and render first aid. It is only through the support of every loyal American that it is possible to continue the wonderful work done by the American Red Cross. In these war times it is more important than ever to keep up this splendid work, though it has increased many times in volume. Your dollars make this work possible. Give now to the 1945 Red Cross War Fund, and give more.

Public Library RECEIVES NEW BOOKS Several books have been added at the Farmington Library during the month of February, and are now available to readers. It has been announced by Mrs. Florence Leach, librarian. Among adult books now available are "Heads Up! Heads Down!" "Fateless Feather Mender"; "Rubber Band"; "Pause to Wonder"; "Hard Facts"; "I'll Hate Myself in the Morning"; "Papa Was a Preacher"; "Green Hazard"; "Great Son"; "Immortal Wife"; "Mediterranean Sweep". Juvenile readers will be delighted with new selections, including "How to Raise Your Puppy"; "Mystery Schooner"; "Buckeye Boy"; "High in the Mountain"; "Greedy Goat"; "Prayer for a Child"; "Ling Tang and the Lucky Cricket". A review of some of the above books will be found elsewhere in this issue of The Enterprise.

Triple-A Farm Meeting IS ARRANGED A Triple-A meeting will be held at the Farmington Town Hall March 8-9-10. The farm program for 1945 and soil building practice will be discussed. Your local committee man will not call at your home this year to sign a Triple-A Farm Program for 1945 if you wish to qualify for farm payments. There will be someone at the Town Hall from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

Mrs. DeVriendt Heads Group of Volunteers

Extra effort is being put into the local drive for the American Red Cross this week, in an endeavor to surpass the quota of $12,000, which has been set for Farmington. Mrs. Joseph DeVriendt, who is chairman of the drive in Farmington, and her workers, report that the campaign got off to a rather slow start, and it will be necessary to considerably speed up the volume of contributions if the quota is to be met. Much of the house-to-house calling has already been completed, and if you have not been called upon, it is possible that the solicitor in your neighborhood has tried to contact you at some time when you were not at home. Ladies who are doing this calling include Mrs. Pink, Mrs. Humphreys, Mrs. Newlin, Mrs. MacCulloch, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Gaston, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. J. J. Full, Mrs. Schrepper, Mrs. James Leach, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Fyoot, Mrs. Elizabeth Scriber, Mrs. Harboure, Mrs. Joy, Mrs. Lintz, Mrs. Taggart, Mrs. Hendryx, Mrs. Kowalski, Mrs. Leuz, Mrs. Bagnall, Mrs. Carpenter, Mildred Prindle, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Locher, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. Roseman, Mrs. Kausman, Mrs. Rouse, Mrs. Cartee, Mrs. Werschinn and Mrs. Rutilla. If one of the above ladies has not called upon you to receive your contribution to the Red Cross War Drive, please call Mrs. DeVriendt at Farmington 0681, and she will see that your donation is called for.
