

THOSE MOANS AND GROANS... you perchance happened to hear Wednesday came from the Farmington Kiwanians, for baseball is a little outside the average Kiwanian's daily routine...

TRAVEL is nothing unusual for the average Farmingtonite, judging from those who are either going, or have just returned from a most enjoyable, and often quite extensive vacation trip.

CARNIVAL TIME... is always a gay, happy time for everyone, so Farmington ought to be in a most festive mood, with the Gala Days celebration slated for a full week's stand at Grand River and Maple Avenues.

A BIT OF FACE LIFTING... is going on in the Warner building housing Pauline's Market, Irene's Apparel Shop, the Post Office and Warner Dairy offices.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT... was out several times this week, having been called upon to put out some grass fires that got out of control.

ONCE AGAIN... the community are focused on building in the main section of the city, as construction is under way on a building to be located between the Civic Theatre and Buck's Victory Restaurant.

HOLLYHOOPS... grow tall at the Kabri home, too, for Asa Kabri reports that he has some top-notchers. All this discussion about hollyhocks might well lead to other flowers, too, but that is not only bred in the garden...
