

Feels Years Younger

Are sleepless nights and nervousness acting as a drag on your career?... making you feel old and worn out? Then, read this encouraging statement by a man who feared his advancing age—until he made an important discovery!

"Nights of sleepless tossing and turning made me feel old and tired—unable to meet the business competition of younger men. But my doctor put the blame on 'coffee nerves' and suggested I switch to POSTUM. Now, with nervousness gone, I get 8 hours sleep every night and I literally feel years younger!"

SCIENTIFIC FACTS: Both coffee and tea contain caffeine. And caffeine is a stimulant which acts upon the brain and central nervous system. Also—in susceptible persons—caffeine tends to produce harmful stomach acidity. So, while many people can drink coffee or tea without ill-effect, others suffer nervousness, indigestion, sleeplessness. But POSTUM contains no caffeine or other drug—nothing that can possibly keep you awake or upset your nerves!

MAKE THIS TEST: Give up coffee—give up tea—drink POSTUM exclusively for 30 days—and judge the results! Ask your grocer today for INSTANT POSTUM—A Vigorous Drink made from Healthful Wheat and Bran. A Product of General Foods.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and daughter, Margaret, were Thursday evening guests of Mrs. Hunter's mother, Mrs. M. E. Ault on Mayfield Avenue.

Mrs. Robert Diehle, of Shady Side Avenue, has been suffering from a severe attack of arthritis.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Hubbard and Norfolk, is convalescing from measles.

Mrs. V. Reddy, Mrs. I. J. Wagner, Mrs. M. E. Ault, and Mrs. O. R. Judd were among those attending the Flower Show in Convention Hall Thursday.

Men of Shady Side Avenue between Norfolk and Eight Mile did some road work last week on Sunday. Hubbard Avenue men labored in the same fashion. Incidentally, Hubbard Avenue folks are "chipping in" on the way to gravel with which to improve the road.

As a benefit for the Livonia Methodist Church, Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Sr., entertained at cards last Tuesday.

Mrs. E. W. Stange left early Wednesday morning to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Iob-Judd and family, near Green Pointe. Mrs. Judd has been ill.

Mrs. Lester Grundy was again visiting her sister, ill with rheumatoid fever, in Highland Park General Hospital last Wednesday.

A sister and grandchild from Saginaw have been the guests this past week of Mrs. James Simpson, on Mayfield Avenue. Hostess and guests spent some time with relatives in Detroit.

Ernest Ashe and Coast Guardsman Wayne Ault visited in northern Michigan last week end.

A "Poly-T" party at the home of Mrs. Christina Rehahn Wednesday afternoon proved a most pleasant get-together for a dozen ladies of the neighborhood. Games and stunts preceded the demonstration of plastics. Mrs. V. Reddy and Mrs. William Fisher were among those awarded prizes. As the lady nearest to have a birthday, Mrs. Rehahn was presented with a gift. Mrs. Louis Jennings of Norfolk Avenue gave a similar luncheon at her home Friday.

Freda Ault stopped in to see Mrs. Esther Haas, out Grand River near Redford, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Haas, who formerly resided on Strohman Avenue, is convalescing from pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis returned from Florida Sunday evening. They found Livonia a sea of mud and got "wet" again. Immediately by having to be towed the last homeward stretch.

Fairies have been discovered busy themselves in this community. Recently a truck driver was forced to dump a load of coal by the roadside, since a mud driveway made it impossible to reach a shed designated for coal storage. The re-ignited fuel was the property of two no-longer-young women, who live alone in a tiny house. Carrying coal bucket by bucket across the width of two acre lots was a difficult undertaking for the ladies. However, the pile by the road kept diminishing and the heap in the woods increased. Sometimes it happened at night, sometimes while the "girls" were off to a meeting or something. But finally it got done. The grateful women, as they are called, realized that just now even fairies would need gasolines.

For the first time in a week, some of us had a close-to-home visit March 31 from the community milkman, and those other folks who are ordinarily such a help to us in maintaining a well-ordered existence.

Mrs. Marjorie Rogers, from Dearborn, was calling in this neighborhood several times during the last few weeks.

Little Miss Susie Dickleson of Parker Avenue is convalescing from an illness which kept her in bed most of last week.

Nelson Nordyke, from Grand Rapids, was visiting with his uncle, Edwin L. Johnson, and friends in the vicinity last week end.

Work with the new Pierson School Cub Scouts is progressing.

A meeting of leaders was held last Tuesday afternoon.

Livonia Health Guild meets at Madonna College April 8. A luncheon precedes the afternoon's program.

David McWhinnie of Detroit was the Friday evening guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chavey of Mayfield Avenue.

After many Sundays of attendance, Nancy Varhol was awarded a Scriptural Salt and Pepper set, lighthouse pattern, in the Neighborhood Bible School last Sunday.

Livonia Methodist ladies were busy with their rummage sale on Thursday. Success is reported.

Young folks of the Neighborhood Bible School section are invited to meet in the church next Friday evening at 7 for their annual Easter egg exchange. Each child will bring a decorated hard-boiled egg.

The Neighborhood Church Bible Study group, which could not meet regularly during February and March because of bad weather and poor roads, has been re-established last Thursday evening and will be holding service every Thursday evening during the spring and summer.

Mrs. Edith Graham has been very sick the past two months, and is under a doctor's care.

Sharon Heliker, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heliker, has been spending the past two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banfield at Wixom.

Mrs. Clara Green and daughter, Doris, went to Temperance, Michigan, to attend the funeral of Eleanor Nyburg, who died at Ann Arbor Hospital Friday. Miss Nyburg was the daughter of Rev. Richard Nyburg, who lived at Walled Lake before taking a church at Temperance three years ago.

Miss Betty Monger called on Mrs. Charles Heliker Wednesday.
