STATE OF MICHIGAN
 IN THE PROBATE COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF OAKLAND

In the matter of the estate of David Gray, deceased.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON Third Account of David Gray Trust Company covering the period from January 17, 1942 to January 17, 1950. At a meeting of said court held in the courtroom in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, on the 20th day of March, 1950.

Present: HON. ARTHUR E. MOORE, Judge of Probate.

That Company, as Successor Trustee under the will of David Gray, Jr., deceased, covering the period from January 17, 1942 to January 17, 1950, of said account and for the approval of the trustee's account and for the approval of the petitioner's charge for services as Trustee during the period of said account.

Now, therefore, it is ordered that account and petition of said account be heard for hearing before this court on the 17th day of the month of March, 1950, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Probate Office in the City of Pontiac, Michigan, at which time any person interested in the estate of said decedent, or the residue of said estate, may appear and be heard.

ARTHUR E. MOORE, Judge of Probate.

 operating in Detroit.

Clayton-Lambert Company moved from Detroit to Louisville, Ky. Eureka-Williams Corporation, most of whom moved from Detroit to Bloomington, Ill.

Crest Industries moved part of their operation to South Carolina. Haywood-Walshfield moved from Menominee to Massachusetts.

Chicago Pneumatic Tool moved from Detroit to Utica, New York. Aluminum Fabricators moved from Charlotte to Rome, Georgia.

Precision Parts moved from Ann Arbor to Geneva, Illinois.

Detroit Company moved from Detroit to Kentucky.

"Today 21 other Michigan companies are known to be considering locations in other states," pointed out Mr. Wacker. "In each known case the state department is making every possible effort to hold the company in Michigan."

In reviewing the situation of attracting industry to Michigan, it appears that little attention has been given to the problem of keeping industry in Michigan, as illustrated by the above examples of industries which have migrated to other states.

prompted manufacturers to close their Michigan plants and seek employment conditions elsewhere? In view of the state corporation profits tax, now pending before the state legislature, it would seem that answers to these questions are pertinent to 1950 political issues.

Industries mean payroll; payroll means purchasing power in the community. It is obvious that the industrial prosperity of Michigan must depend to a large degree upon making Michigan an attractive place to work and live.
