

Looking Ahead

By DR. GEORGE S. BENSON

 first thing the children and teachers saw upon opening the 1946 Magruder's was an outline map of the world. The first thing they see upon opening the 1955 edition is the Great Seal of the United States and seals of departments of our government, with a sketch of our national capitol and the Washington Monument in the background.

The frontispiece in the 1946 Magruder's is a photograph of the United Nations conference at San Francisco. President Truman is speaking at the raised dais. At his left is Edward R. Steutgenius.

"AFTER ELECTION IT'S TOO LATE TO VOTE"

Paul S. Calkins
 First Political Aide

Secretary of State, and Alger Hiss, who helped shape the formation of the U. N. The frontispiece of the 1955 Magruder's is a beautiful full-color photograph of our national capitol through a frame of cherry blossoms. These changes indicate a transformation. In next week's column we shall examine the changes that have been wrought inside the text of Magruder's "American Government."

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. Castiglione of Middlebelt Road were Mrs. Castiglione's son, Norman Macey, and his wife, Patricia, and four grandchildren. The Maceys were also called on their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, also of Farmington.

Cub Pack 109, sponsored by the Middlebelt School P. T. A., met Thursday, March 17, at the school with the theme of the meeting being "King Arthur's Round Table."

A skit was presented by Deni entitled "Knighthood in Flower." Mr. Kenneth Luchman, dressed in armor, presented badges to Bobcats John Anderson, Gregory Franja, Gordon Northrop, John Schulz and Terry Taggart. Robert Lord received his Wolf Badge and Dennis Thornton the Wehelo. Young Thornton was also graduated into Boy Scout Troop 109.

Registration began Monday, March 21, at the Farmington State Bank for donors for the coming blood bank, to be held April 19 at the American Legion Hall from 1:45 to 7:45 p.m. This is your blood bank like anyone else's. Blood will be supplied to you for any of your later needs or those of your neighbors. Anyone needing blood in this area at any time may call me, Mrs. Howard Legg, at Farmington 2265-W. Get out and register now so that our bank will always be stocked for the future.

Miss Carol Smith and her fiancé, Bruce Phillips, returned to Wilmore, Kentucky, and their studies at Asbury College last Wednesday after spending spring vacation here with Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of Tuck Road.

Wesley Orr of 24343 Springbrook Drive was confined at his home last week with a virus infection.

A baby boy, David Andrew, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Taylor of 23450 Springbrook Drive March 21 at the Dearborn Medical Center. He weighed 6 1/2 pounds.

Neighborhood children enjoyed a birthday party on Saturday, March 19, honoring Robert Priekorn on his sixth birthday.

Mrs. Julia St. James entertained a group of neighborhood ladies at a ceramic demonstration last Thursday. Among the ladies in attendance were: Mrs. Catherine Johnson, Mrs. A. Romero, Miss Sandy DeWater, Mrs. Mary Ann DeWater, Mrs. Mary Taylor, Mrs. Marion Gilmore, Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Mrs. Jessie Smith, Mrs. Mary Solush, Mrs. Pauline Prigorski, Mrs. Helen Miesner, Mrs. Irene Jones, Mrs. Evelyn Kendrick, Mrs. Mary Legg and Mrs. Jennie Patch, who demonstrated.

The proudest parents around these parts are Evelyn and Leonard Hicks of Eight Mile Road. They have adopted a three-month old baby boy and have named him John Leonard.

Mrs. Russ Hines was the guest of honor at a baby shower on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. George Cooke of Albion Street. Mrs. Hines received many lovely presents for her new son, Dana. Games were played and refreshments were served to the following guests: Ann Garden, Theresa Tucker, Wilma Forbes, Dolores Basset, Elsie Burkman, Lorna Rice, Rosemary Bolanah, Betty Brooks, Dolores Cooke, Lil Hines and her mother, Mrs. Anderson of Redford.

Just another reminder about the V. F. W. Bake Sale on Friday at the Farmington office of the Detroit Edison Company. If you are in town, dig around and see what these pals have baked.

Mud - Mud - Mud - is there a street without it? Harry Tucker of Earl Brooks of Albion Street had the misfortune of breaking his car springs trying to get down their road.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Westenberg of 29537 Stockton entertained ten for dinner and the evening on Sunday. Special guests were Mrs. Westenberg's nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johanson. The Johansons are leaving for Los Angeles, California, where they plan to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bowden of Ten Mile Road welcomed a new baby to their home. The son, weighing over seven pounds, was born March 14. A shower was given the night the baby was born. Mrs. Bowden was unable to attend.

Mrs. John McKenna of 29798 Linder has returned from a two-week trip to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where her son, Edward Blizque, and his family live. She enjoyed seeing for the first time her six-month-old granddaughter, Barbara Ann, and reawakening acquaintances with her grandson, Richard, who is two years old. It was quite cold when Mrs. McKenna arrived home and she stated that she wouldn't mind turning around and going right back to Florida.

Committee members of Girl Scout Troop 174 met Tuesday evening, March 15, at the home of Mrs. Albert Coates, 23600 Middlebelt. Plans were completed for an over-night trip to Greenfield Village. They will leave Saturday, March 26, and on Sunday will visit the museum and other places of interest in the Village. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Edmund Hammond, Barbara Santo, Betty Thornton, Margaret Hart and Virginia Williams. Mrs. Briggs was unable to attend.

Several residents of this area are still ill. Some of them are Mrs. Elden Ota, Mrs. Hubert McKerracher, Sandra Hart, and Joey Hawkins.
