Receive Degrees From Stephens

Miss Nancy Jean Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fisher of 28393 Wellington Road, and Miss Susan Jane Schlotterbeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Schlotterbeck of 25493 Beech Hill, were among more than 650 students who received degrees from Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri, at commencement exercises on Tuesday, May 31.

The four-day commencement program began Friday, May 27, with a commencement ball. Traditionally, fathers of graduating seniors are escorts for the occasion. The play "Sabrina Fair" was presented during the week end.

On Saturday, the annual honor convocation was held, followed by an aquatic show and a horse show. Baccalaureate services were held Sunday morning, with special Vespers services for parents in the evening. A commencement luncheon was held at noon and a Senior Concert was presented in the afternoon.

On Monday, a spring fashion show was presented. An Old Missouri Barbeque for male guests only was held Sunday afternoon while women guests were honored at a reception. In the evening a school musical program was held.

Borrowing neighbors will take everything but a hint.

The Neighborhood Sunshine Sisters conducted a luncheon meeting in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. About fifteen participated. Mrs. Adolph Knapka was a visitor from Detroit. The devotional theme centered around the Biblical story of King Hezekiah. During the social hour each lady present endeavored to write as many words as possible, using only the letters found in the name "Secret Sunshine Pal." At the end of ten minutes, Mrs. Virginia Reddy had the most words and was awarded a prize. Mrs. Willard Blackney also received a prize.

The next Sunshine meeting will also begin with a mother's luncheon and will take the form of a June birthday party, to be held at the home of Mrs. George Welch, 26349 Mayfield Avenue. Mrs. Welch, who is a shut-in, celebrates her sixth birthday in June, and in this way is to be honored. Other local women having June birthdays are invited to be special guests for the occasion. Following the luncheon, the usual Sunshine program will be carried out.
