BOTSFORD NAMED 20-YEAR MEMBER OF D. HINES FAMILY

Botsford Inn will be honored by Duncan Hines as a 20-year member of the Duncan Hines Family next week in Chicago, it was disclosed this week.

Duncan Hines will personally award the citation at the fourteenth annual Duncan Hines Family dinner at Chicago's Sheraton Hotel Monday evening, May 7.

Twenty-year members of the Duncan Hines Family are those restaurants listed in Duncan Hines guide book, "Adventures in Good Eating," 20 years ago and still recommended by Duncan Hines in 1956.

The Duncan Hines Family includes all of the eating, lodging, and vacation places listed in the 1956 editions of not only "Adventures in Good Eating," but "Vacation Guide" and "Lodging for a Night."

Livonia Recreation Seeks Old Baseball Equipment

Persons who have baseball uniforms or equipment stored away in the attic or basement not being used at the present time, are asked to contact the Parks and Recreation Department of the City of Livonia.

The department would like to put the material into use for some of the Recreation Department ball teams. It was disclosed this week. Some boys would undoubtedly be proud to display that old uniform on the ball diamond, officials said. Anyone having a donation should contact the Recreation office at GA. 2-3956 immediately.

Manufacturers will soon be able to ship hundreds of non-strategic products to Russia and her European satellites without an export license. So say Secretary of Commerce Stephen Weeks. Strict controls on sales of strategic goods will remain in effect.
