More Seniors Announce Plans To Attend College

Several more seniors have made college plans for next year. Highland Park Junior College will be the destination of Jean Crossett, Louis Gildemeister, and Randall Ring next fall. Roberta Spaller and Barbara Groom will attend Wayne University. Dennis Hamilton and Paul Lachmann will study at Western Michigan College. Michigan State University will welcome freshmen John Holwar, Bill Beech, Michael King, Don Yordy, and John Oliver in September, 1956. Studying engineering at Lawrence Tech will be Ronald Roberts, Michael Lapham, Kenneth Wright, and Charles Toole. Other prospective engineers Michigan Tech will be Gary Best, Dave Harrison, and Jim Chellman. Dianna Redilla and Diane Westfall will take up nursing at Providence Hospital and Mt. Carmel School of Nursing, respectively. Out of state colleges will claim two more freshmen. The freshmen will be Glen Warner, Eastern Kentucky State, and Joanne Mitchell, Kings College, New York. Patricia Miller and Carol Sembe will take a business course at Burrage and Carolee Daniels will study at the Detroit Business Institute. Arlene Ford will attend Central Michigan. Nore Gade will go to Michigan State Normal, and Francis Mancuso will attend the University of Michigan. Students at Paris Institute and Adrian will be Peter Quisenberry and Mary Howe, respectively.

STUDENTS FAVOR DRESS REGULATIONS BY 4 TO 3 RATIO

The final tabulation of the voting of the student body of F. H. S. favors student dress regulations. The vote was 315 in favor and 302 opposed. The lower classmen seemed to be far less in favor of the proposition which in effect states that boys shall not wear jeans and that shirts must be buttoned completely except the top neck button. Belts must be worn. The girls shall not be allowed to wear jeans, slacks, or Bermuda shorts but be banned from wearing turbans or pincurls on their hair.

Yearbook Staff Chosen For 1957

Members of the 1957 Rollcall staff were chosen April 24 by the Junior officers and faculty advisors. Jane Boyce was chosen editor-in-chief of the yearbook for next year. The art editor will be Karen Senob; business editor, Don Pemberton; literary editor, Donna Wilkins; photography editor, Nancy Hodgins. The photography editor will be assisted by D. Baldwin. The art staff consists of S. Larson, J. Weightman, C. Cusac, B. Hoppe, J. Tilder, and A. Scott. The business staff is composed of V. Nelson, K. Boswell, S. Henry, McCaskill, A. Landacre, and T. DeGroot. The literary staff is made-up of N. Beal, B. McNaft, L. Kelly, M. Martin, M. A. Onniah, and B. Place. One sophomore will also be chosen for each staff.

Honor Assembly Planned For May 9

The annual Honors Assembly will be held May 9 at the high school gymnasium. The Boys' and Girls' Sextets will present selections at the program. Mr. T. Maatiah will act as chairman. The faculty members submitted the names of recipients of their department to Mr. Geister. As in the past, the winners of the V. F. W. essay contest and the American Legion Auxiliary essay contest will be given their awards at this program. The Juniors members of the Girls' and Boys' State will also be given recognition. Mr. T. Maatiah will act as chairman of the instrumental contest.

G.A.A. INDOOR SOFTBALL PLAY GETS UNDER WAY

Indoor softball was played at Wednesday's G. A. A. meeting on April 25. Nancy Irvin, member of Spicore's team, scored three runs of five. Drea's team made only two. In the second game Martin lost to Duna, 3-2. The last two games were forfeited. Lancaster forfeited to Lakeland and Seelye forfeited to White. Female High School invited two of Farmington's volleyball teams to come over to their school May 4 and May 5.

Girls' Bowling Team Concludes Schedule

The Girls' Bowling League met for the last time on the 1955-56 season on April 25 at the Farmington Recreation bowling alley. Janet Cervin, captain of the top team, the Gutter Gals, had a high game and high series with 133 and 402 respectively. Pat Stipeack also had a high game with 155 and Linda Kelly bowled 398 for a high series. Final team standings are:

Students Design, Make Scale Model Homes

The Mechanical Drawing III class, under the supervision of Mr. Timmons, has been working for weeks on a project of house design. The students first designed their own house, then using various materials constructed them in miniature to scale. Students who participated in this project were: H. Bensch, D. Benson, S. Bishop, R. Eves, J. Plick, E. Poy, C. Johnson, L. McKinney, G. Mullin, J. Peruchetti, C. Piper, D. Sauerbrey, J. Sundria, B. Walde, and M. Walgora. The homes are on display in the library.

Puppet Shows Amuse Lower Grade Students

Puppets made by students of Class A of the Art Department, have been amusing the children of the lower grades in several local elementary schools. "Jack and the Beanstalk" and "East of Egg Jamboree" have been presented to the kindergarten through second grade pupils of Bond, Gill and Middlebelt Schools. These productions will also be presented at Shawassee School on Tuesday, May 9. The students who made the puppets are present; the skits are Tom Hood, Bob Sunjula, Dick Sutton, Norman Willoughby, Don Yordy, Deanna DuFall, Harold Bailey, James Haffer, George Schulking, and Hbraze Waters.

Science Speaker Talks To Two Class Groups

Students of Mr. Joseph Manz's hour physics class of the 1955-56 Wilcox's sixth hour chemistry class heard a representative of the Monsanto Chemical Corporation speak about the possibilities in the field of science for young people today. He said that there was a great shortage of all types of scientists, including bio-chemists, pharmacists, chemical engineers, physicists, and many more. He also stated that high school students could find summer jobs with the Monsanto Corporation in their laboratories. A question and answer period followed the thirty-minute talk.

Exchange Student Guest At Honor Dinner April 26

Gunilla Ahlelen, F. H. S. foreign exchange student from Sweden, was guest of honor at a dinner held at the Stockholm Restaurant in Detroit Thursday, April 26. Gunilla was presented a corsage of the royal colors of Sweden, yellow and blue, by the two French classes that accompanied her. The arrangements for the honorary dinner were made by Miss Bastianielli, French and Spanish instructor of Farmington Senior High.

Senior Glass Visits Plymouth Assembly Plant

The Senior Class of Farmington Senior High took a field trip to the Plymouth Assembly Plant in Detroit Wednesday, May 2. A tour of the plant began at 11:30 a. m. At that time the group observed the assembly line making cars. After the tour, refreshments were served in the company cafeteria.

Falconnaires Sing For Kiwanis Club

One of the entertainment features of the Kiwanis Club's Music Night Tuesday, May 1, was the Farmington High Falconnaires. The selections they sang were "Comin' Thru the Rye," "We Could Make Such Beautiful Music," and "Hospodi Pomilui." The program was held in the Sienon Church.
