Seniors Take Preference Test

Seniors at the high school have had pretty sore fingers lately and as a result - the Kuder Preference Test. It was administered to the seniors during the week by the testing counselor. Since the test requires a selection of answers by the way of punching a hole with a pin, the sore fingers were the immediate result.

A later result was the evaluation of a student's preference in the line of various vocational fields. The test's main purpose is to illustrate to the student just where his potential ability and his interest lie.

Some students find this information very valuable and discover fields that they had not before considered as a possibility in the vocational field.

A. FULLER TAKES SECOND IN DISTRICT SPELLING MATCH

Agnes Fuller, eighth grader of Clarenceville High School, placed second in the District spelling match held in Milford last Monday afternoon. The bee, which began at 1:30 p.m., lasted until all winners had been successfully spelled down. Sixteen winners were present from Walked Lake, Milford, South Lyon, Novi, and Clarenceville.

Miss Fuller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fuller of Hamilton Avenue and is a transfer student from Northville City Junior High School, Alexander City, Alabama.

NORTHVILLE GROUP PRESENTS PLAYS AT C.H.S. ASSEMBLY

A Student Council Exchange Assembly from Northville presented to a high school audience at Clarenceville last week two one act plays. The group presenting the plays was the forensics group from Northville.

The first play, "A Slice of Melon" was a pastime with a twist (met Chinese accents). It was a comedy with a slight touch of philosophy blended in. The second play was "Beware the Bear," a comedy concerning the doings of one cabin in a camp for girls for one day.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY, 'BROTHER GOOSE', PRESENTED FRIDAY

Last Friday night the Junior Class of Clarenceville High School presented its class play "Brother Goose."

Leading the cast of characters was Russell Waack, playing the part of "Brother Goose." His flock consisted of Carol, played by Betty Edwards; Wes, by David Stingle; and Hyacinth, a football-crazy girl of ten, portrayed by Diane Vickowian.

Helen, the housekeeper who waits on the staff, was played by Janet VanArman. Shirley Chestnut played Eve, the southern girl from across the street who attracted Wes's attention. Sarah, the colored maid, portrayed by Barbara Lesniewiec, helped the family plan the party. Sandy Muirhead played Lenore, who was after Jeff. She messed up the whole deal with her snooty behavior and meddling.

Mrs. Tschmer, planning to build the Blue Inn next door, which added to the confusion, was played by Kay Mann. Last-but not least was Peggy, portrayed by Marie West, who came to the rescue by taking over the housekeeper's job and winning Jeff away from Lenore.

The play was well moving and well filled with the football antics of Hy doing push-ups and exercises during the entire play to keep the audience in an uproar.

The production was directed by Mr. Donald Perrin of the music department, who was assisted by Miss Marilyn Anderson of the speech department and Mrs. Mary Lavers of the English department. Marian Dalley was the student director.

Friday and Saturday, April 27 and 28, the Band Boosters Club held a rummage sale at the Judson Glass and Mirror Company.
