MRS. THOMAS W. DECKER

Carroll, Decker Rites Solemnized October 27

Wedding vows were exchanged at Our Lady of Sorrows Church last Saturday morning at an 11 o'clock mass between Judith Ann Carroll of 26225 Nine Mile Road and Thomas William Decker of 27480 Spring Valley Drive.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Dunn. Betty Shafer sang and played at the organ, "On This Day" and "Ave Maria."

The former Miss Carroll was lovely in a dupioni silk floor-length gown with a chapel train featuring a bustle back, rounded imported lace trim at the neckline and set off with tiny seed pearls and sequins. A fingertip veil of French embroidered lace with silver thread fell from a tiara crown. She carried a ivory book covered with dupioni silk and adorned with two white orchids and stephanotis.

Attending the bride as maid-of-honor was Janet Porath and as matron-of-honor, Joan Watts. Also attending as bridesmaids were Janet Carroll, Marvin Gregor and Mary Ellen Carroll. All wore apricot taffeta gowns with brown velvet cummerbunds and panels in the backs of the dresses. They wore brown velvet crowns adorned with seed pearls and holding face veils in place and carried fall mums.

Tim Carroll served as best man. Acting as ushers were Don Decker, John Gee, Harry Gross and Charles Watts.

A wedding breakfast was served at Botsford Inn for the wedding party with a reception being held at the Carroll home on Nine Mile Road.

The couple are now on a wedding trip in Maryland. They will make their home at 314 Griswold in Northville following their return and will be home to friends after November 5. The new Mrs. Decker chose a brown tweed dress trimmed in white leather with brown accessories for going away.

For the wedding the bride's dress was a burgundy and red cummerbund and a rose inset in the center. Accessories included plastic shoes trimmed in red velvet, a similar bag and a pale pink instead of orange. The bridegroom's stepmother, Mrs. Charles Decker of Toledo, Ohio, wore a yellow rose corsage on her dress.

On Saturday prior to the wedding, a spinster's luncheon was held in honor of the bride at the Hillside House and was given by the maid-of-honor Janet Porath. The bride's attendants were presented with corsages of pink and white carnations and also with pearl choker necklaces and button earrings to match. Three bridal showers were also given for the bride. Arlene Leach of Inkster Road, with 22 present; Mrs. John Buehler of Somerset, Detroit, with 20 present, and Miss Mary Ellen Carroll, with 15 present.

The former Miss Carroll attended Farmington High School and the University of Detroit and had been employed with Hughes and Hatcher at Northland Center. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Burnam High School in Toledo in 1934, is employed with the Walter Carroll company.

Alta Loma Sub Happenings

The Alta Loma neighborhood card party was held last week at the home of Loren and Peg Jenks on Alta Loma Drive. This was the first fall gathering of the group. All 14 guests were present to enjoy the fun and refreshments.

Frank and Audrey Murland of Moore Drive returned home Saturday from bow and arrow hunting and vacationing at the Deer Wood Forest, Millersburg, Michigan. They shot a yearling on Wednesday.

Larry Henderson celebrated his fourth birthday with a party for his neighborhood friends on Saturday afternoon.

MR. and MRS. ROGER A. KAISER

LeMieux, Kaiser Wed At Lady Of Sorrows

At a Mass of Wedding at 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 6, at Our Lady of Sorrows Church, Hildelle Rita LeMieux of 34029 Grand River and Roger Arthur Kaiser of 21301 Colgate were united in wedlock.

White mums, glads and carnations in gold vases decorated the altar. The double ring wedding ceremony was performed by Father Thomas Beahan. Mrs. Joseph Schaffer played the organ and sang "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother" and "Mother at Your Feet is kneeling."

The bride wore a gown with insets of roses on lace with a lace and satin and dotted with sequins and pearls. A pill box crown covered with sequins and pearls held a fingertip veil secure. Her prayer book was adorned with white baby mums.

Her sister, Rosamund, served as maid-of-honor. She wore a princess style, cocktail length white neckline and carried bronze mums.

Acting as bridesmaids were Margie and Nancy LeMieux and Mary Jane Monette. All wore white spun satin, princess style, cocktail length gowns featuring empire waists and shell necklines. They wore bronze velvet hats with bronze veils covered with seed pearls and bronze satin shoes and carried bronze mums.

Groomsmen were Roger, Ronald LeMieux and Romeo LeMieux, Jr. and Jack Markell.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a powder blue suit with navy accessories and white gloves and wore a red tea tree corsage. The groom's mother was identically dressed.

Following the church service a wedding breakfast was served at the Lewis Inn on Grand River. In the evening a reception was held at the Farmington American Legion Hall decorated in gold and white with bows and bells. A buffet luncheon was served.

Out of town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller of Bay City.

The new Mrs. Kaiser, who graduated from Farmington High in 1935 has been employed at the Mac's Store in Farmington. Mr. Kaiser, who graduated from Farmington High in 1932, is now employed at the Farmington Post Office. He served two years in the Navy in Korean waters.

The newlyweds are now making their home on Farmington Road following their return from a wedding trip through Canada and back by way of New York.

Town Club To Hold Annual Auction Meeting

Highlight of the Farmington Town Club meeting this evening will be the annual auction.

Members will have the opportunity to display their talents in the fields of cooking, sewing, canning, painting and woodworking. Mrs. Liz Smith will be the auctioneer.

Hostess for the evening will be Betty Eirshole. She will be assisted by Mary Ann Perry, Chris Harris and Glenna Hulst.

Promenaders Invite More Square Dancers

The Farmington Promenaders are now square dancing on the first and third Fridays of the month in the cafeteria of the high school.

According to members of the group, more are welcomed to join the group. Guests are welcome. For information call President Jack Steyskal, Mayfair 6-2287 or Secretary Edna Hoodnagle, GR. 4-6141.

The next dance for the group has been scheduled for November 2.

When the University of Michigan was chartered in 1817, there were only 7,000 inhabitants in the Michigan territory.

Botsford Garden Club To Meet

The annual meeting of the Botsford Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Georgia Dennis at 22225 Dresden Street, Farmington, on November 12 at 1 p.m.

Co-hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Erna Iversen, Mrs. Ann Collins and Mrs. Jean Wilson.

At the October meeting of the club, Miss Tuerpeit, conversation teacher at Central school, gave a report on a week spent by her at the Michigan Conservation Department and sponsorship of the Farmington Garden Club.

Mrs. Helen Yearseley of the Franquist nursery gave a talk on trees, shrubs and bushes followed by a question and answer period. Mrs. Katherine Martin, horticulture chairman, concluded the meeting with a talk of bulb planting and how to put the garden in shape for winter.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Judith Dwyer, daughter of Mrs. William Dwyer of 31900 Allison Drive, to Donald Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of 33518 Longwood, was disclosed last week.

Both Miss Dwyer and Mr. Robinson are 1936 graduates of Farmington High School.
