Mr. and Mrs. William Engstrom of Beacon Drive expressed their appreciation this week to their neighbors and friends for their many kindnesses and consideration in their flowers and cards to their daughter, Sherry, during her recent illness. Sherry left the hospital and came home Sunday. She is recovering nicely from a recent operation.

The Bel-Air Hills Sisters Exchange reminds all members that the group will meet next Tuesday, February 19, at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Stone, 2327 Beacon Drive. This organization has been satisfying the baby sitting needs of its members now for nearly eight months. A few memberships are available at this time. Interested mothers are invited to call Jeanne Stone at GR. 4-1572 or Mary Lynott at GR. 4-5380.

Mrs. Chabala reports that her husband Ed, is progressing very slowly at the Veterans Hospital in Dearborn. The doctors have decided against surgery at this time. Ed is suffering quite a bit of pain at times now, she said. As he still has no use of his hands, the doctors have equipped him with braces which enable him to feed himself some and this is a little encouragement for him. The doctors have said that Ed will be able to use his hands again and that the pain may have a definite meaning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baker of Colchester are used to taking their children to a doctor's office for stitches but last week they had to take their pet dog, Boots, Booth's gram.
