

District Director To Speak Feb. 19

Mrs. Mark Goddard, district director of the P.T.A., will be the principal speaker at the February meeting of the Clarenceville P.T.A. in observance of Founders' Day. She will speak of "P.T.A. It Was and As It Is Today."

Exchange student, Elda Dossent, will give a report on her impressions of life here in the United States.

The meeting will be held at the Clarenceville High School on Tuesday, February 19, starting at 8 p.m.

Final preparations are underway for the annual Variety Show which will be held Saturday, February 23, at the High School. A very interesting program is being planned under the direction of Ervin Nichols, it was indicated.

Cite Method To Obtain Visiting Nurse Service

The February meeting of the Farmington Visiting Nurse Committee was held on February 1 at the home of Mrs. Bernard Rubin in Franklin Knolls.

Prior to the issuance of new telephone directories, Farmington information will carry the telephone number of the district visiting nurse association: Lincoln 2-1200, officials said.

Families desiring nursing assistance and instruction during illness at home may avail themselves of a nurse's regular visits. Fees are adjusted according to the families' ability to pay, it was pointed out.

Library Friends Elect Officers

The regular monthly meeting of the Directors of the Friends of the Library was held February 5 at the home of Clarence Stoll with an election of officers for 1957 being held.

Wendell Brown was named president succeeding John T. Cook, Jr. Others elected were Harold, William, vice president; Clarence Stoll, treasurer and Mary Allison, secretary.

In order to provide for enlarged activities this year, a membership meeting will be held on March 5 in the library of the Senior High School. It is proposed that the by-laws be amended to permit the addition of three new members to the present Board of Directors. These additional Directors would serve also as committee chairmen, including membership committee, programming and publications. Notices of this meeting will be mailed to the members, giving the details of proposed amendments to the by-laws.

Dues for 1957 are now payable, and they be paid to any member of the Directors or officers, or to the librarians at the Public Library.

Speak Wedding Vows At Redford Methodist Church

Vivian Marie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Smith, 3116 West Avenue, Farmington, and Robert Edwin Welden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Welden of 254 Nash Avenue, Dearborn, were united in marriage at a candlelight service at Redford Calvary Methodist Church, Saturday, February 2. The double ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 p.m. by Dr. Alfred London before 150 relatives and friends.

Preceding the bride and her father down the aisle as her only attendants were her twin sisters, Joyce Irene and Joan Jane, in identical shrimp colored crystalline gowns with matching hats and shoes and carrying bouquets of yellow roses.

Harold Welden was the bridegroom's best man. The ushers were Duane Maycock, William Adams and Jack Kosecki. Richard Schaefer acted as ring bearer, including the Lord's Prayer.

The mother of the bride wore a beige satin dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in mint brown with matching accessories. The corsages of both mothers were red and white roses.

The bride's candlelight satin gown was of princess style with full skirt into a cathedral train and a pearl and crown held her fingertip veil in place. Her bouquet was white and pink gladioli with trailing ivy and stephanotis carried on her white Bible.

A reception was held in the church parlor after the ceremony. Later in the evening open dancing was held for the young couple at the Farmington home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Welden are now at home to their many friends and relatives at their home in Lansing, Michigan.

Tickets Available For "Snow White"

A presentation of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" by the Dearborn players is being planned by the Ten Mile Park Teachers Association for February 23, at 2 p.m. at the Junior High School auditorium. Tickets are now available at all school principal offices or may be obtained by calling Mrs. Virgil Rankin, GR 4-6788 or Duncan-Carter, GR 4-4412.

The Dearborn players have been presenting the production for several years in metropolitan Detroit communities. This will be their 53rd performance of "Snow White." Hope Nabholz of Farmington is a member of the cast. Several set changes help to create this fairyland atmosphere.

Married At Candlelight Ceremony In Northville

At a candlelight ceremony held Saturday evening, February 2, at the First Baptist Church of Northville, Patricia Gail White of Novi became the bride of James A. Allen of 771 East Main Street, Northville.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend James A. O'Neill before an altar decorated with white gladioli, stock and palms. Dewey Gardner rendered organ selections during the ceremony and Charles Strausz sang "Blessed" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a white length of pique de soie and imported Chantilly lace accented with tiny buttons down the back and a tailored how nestled in the folds of the skirt. The gown was complemented with matching mits of lace and a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. A veil of French illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried white orchids.

Donna Patterson was the bride's matron-of-honor and wore a balerina length, velvet gown of blue tawny and a bouquet of blue iris, pink carnations and heather.

Bridesmaids were Sharon Allen, Janice VanAlta and Lillian Blair. They wore gowns similar to the matron-of-honor's of pink, lagoon blue and ink red, respectively. They also wore crowns of seed pearls.

Serving as best man to the groom was Clarence Patterson, a friend. Ushers were Ronald White, Bob Chandler and Fredrick Jones.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. David White chose a cinnamon brown, two piece silk dress with pink hat and gloves and beige shoes and purse and a corsage.

Founder's Day Program Planned

Mrs. Nancy Williams, wife of Governor C. Mennen Williams, will be guest of honor at the annual Founder's Day celebration of the Junior-Senior High School P.T.A. on Tuesday, February 19. The celebration will be held at the Senior High school with the program planned to start at 8 p.m.

Mr. Jency Zingelmann of Albion Street in Farmington will present distinguished service awards at the celebration. She is a former teacher at the Noble School of many years' past.

The Art Department at the high school under the direction of Ray Glenn will present an exhibit of art works and the Volney Smith Mother's Singers from Redford Township will render vocal selections during the program.

A bake sale will be conducted by the Ways and Means Committee at the close of the evening.
