Forest Park News

HELEN MOORHOUSE GR. 6-2827

A general membership meeting of the Forest Park Home Owners Association was held on Monday night, March 25, at the Forest Park Home. The budget for the year was voted on and approved. Dues for general membership were set at $3.00 and for life membership at $25.00. A $2.00 dividend was declared on last year's dues which will be applied to this year's dues.

Larry Shapiro, chairman of the board and volunteer committee, reported that three new entrances to the subdivision will be installed at the containing the words "Forest Park, Drive Slowly".

Three new area directors have been elected which means that all streets are represented on the board. The new members are: Ted Gustafson from Nine Mile, Angelo Berardi from South Ontario and Bob Cardell from Ingleter. Gustafson was elected by Rene Williams, Marie Bradley, Irene Cook, Florence Stark, Shirley Workman and Elsie White, all from Ingleter.

SILVER Fir King, a weimer, won first prize in the puppy class at a dog show held at the I.M.A. Hall in Flint on March 31. The new member was by his owner, Barbara Bathey of Ottawa Avenue.

John and Ann (Redewig) of Ontario spent several days at a convention in New York City by the Electrical and Electronics Engineers. It wasn't all work and no play because they combined it with a vacation. They took in a show at the Schubert, went out to dinner, to Rockefeller Center and visited friends. Ann had a ball shopping on Fifth Avenue and sight seeing while her husband attended meetings. They traveled both ways by jet which was exciting in itself.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clifford and son Robin of Ontario, enjoyed two wonderful weeks on the gulf beaches of St. Petersburg, recently. Their older son Barry has been stationed in Germany since October and will be there for another eighteen months.

Ten days vacation were enjoyed in Florida by the Redewigs of Ontario. The first few days they took in the Sebring Sports Car Races because Bill is a buff and former racer. From there, they went to Miami for swimming and shopping.

MARCH COULD be called baby month as there were four born to Forest Park residents.

FALCON BASEBALL HOPES this season will depend on newcomers to the squad since only one letterman is back this year from the 1962 Inter-Lakes Conference Championship team. New also this year will be the coach, Steve Branz (shown standing at L above). Figuring prominently on the coach Branz' building program are junior Bob Lenz (standing), senior letterman Larry Miller and sophomore tending Terry Nielsen (kneeling L to R).

Girl Scout News

Southwest Farmington is the new name for the merged neighborhoods which formerly were Middlebelt-Shiawassee and Irons. We're now a new neighborhood and we are looking forward to continued growth in Girl Scouting in this area.

Girls are now delivering cookies which they took orders for earlier. They wish to thank all who purchased cookies. These funds help to stretch troop funds, provide funds for remodeling, improving and extending camping facilities; add to the Campership Fund, and make available mobile units for local Day Camps.

THE RECENT Birthday Celebration was a huge success. Southeast Farmington wishes to express their thanks for having had an opportunity to participate.

Intermediate Troop 1005 went to town to celebrate International Week. They went across the bridge, had lunch on the Canadian side and returned following an interesting discussion program is planned and if you are unable to attend, please let the hostess know.

ROB WICKLANDER is returning from a bout of illness. Ruth Ann Newell had a severe case of mumps and Elizabeth Loeb lost her tonsils.

The lure of the gravel pit seems to be just too strong and the force on the east side of the subdivision suffers for it. One section had been fixed and now an entire new section has been broken down. Let's put this area off-bounds for our children, both large and small.

Hurrying to catch the ice cream man, Cheryl Moffitt put her hand through the storm door and cut two tendons which mean meet the wife of a doctor. Her sister thoughtfully got the ice cream Cheryl had been hurrying for but by the time she got back from the doctor's office, she lost all desire for it.

We have happy birthdays to extend to Flo Nauman, Mickey Mooney and Al Norion. The Norions are looking forward to their son coming home Friday from college for his Easter vacation.
