Dog Is Looking For Lost Owner

A boxer dog has been roaming through Forest Park Subdivision for the past six weeks and no one has been able to figure out why the animal's owner hasn't attempted to reclaim him.

The dog is a thoroughbred, well-trained, well-groomed and friendly. The boxer is about two years old and residents in the Forest Park Subdivision have been feeding it and taking turns providing shelter for it at night.

Some residents are concerned about the dog running loose, however, and indicate the Michigan Humane Society will get him unless the rightful owner makes himself known and claims him before long.

Anyone wishing to inquire further about the dog can call Mrs. Juanita Saure at GR. 6-8941.
