Easter Cantata Labeled Best In Farmington

A warm, receptive and enthusiastic audience heard Felix Mendelssohn's Elijah oratorio in the Farmington High School gymnasium on Tuesday, April 9, which marked the chorus orchestra, soloists, and William Feucht, conductor, feel very rewarded for their efforts.

MR. FEUCHT HOPES for an additional 200 voices which would swell the 1964 chorus to 450 voices. He invited all interested adults to plan on joining the chorus next year...

Speaking of the Elijah as the first oratorio in the history of the cantata series, Feucht commented that a great tribute has been paid to high school music education in the study and preparation of this fine work.

He pointed to the many wonderful aspects of the situation that only a joint community project of the school and church could accomplish...

Farmington Agents Attend Conference

Two Farmington State Farm Insurance Agency representatives were in New York recently for a three-day conference attended by 2,800 agents and wives.

From Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sauer and Chet H. Rayner took part in the conference which honored outstanding State Farm representatives.

Sauer's office is located at 3200 Grand River in Farmington. Rayner's address is 32749 Northwestern Highway in Farmington.

Theatrical Make-Up Workshop Offered

"Dirty black marks" on a sticky forehead are almost the hallmark of many amateur theatricals, according to Russell Smith who will show how to repair this imperfection in a week workshop on "Theatrical Make-Up for Adults," beginning Wednesday, April 17, from 9:15 to 9:45 p.m. in the Detroit Institute of Arts study room.

JUDGED THE "BEST OF SHOW" at Chrysler Corporation's Eighth Annual Arts and Crafts show, "Cool Stacks" a painting by Farmington artist Richard W. Steiger (R), 28197 Quail Hollow Rd., was selected by a panel of three judges as the best work among 300 entries March 24. Viewing the father's work with pride are the artists' daughters, Linda, 5, Maria, 7, and Marie, 9.

Cancer Campaign Volunteers Deserve Support This Month

During April one of the more than 2,000,000 American Cancer Society volunteers will call on you. The volunteer will ask for contributions for the Society's cancer research, education and service program.

THE VOLUNTEER is on the threshold of another stunning victory - saving at least half of those who develop cancer. Instead of the one third now being saved, this year, volunteers are redoubling their efforts to persuade all people to have a health checkup once a year.

A DESIRE TO HELP others motivates the volunteer. It is an unselfish desire toward others in the knowledge of a job needing to be done - being done well.

Volunteers have already won stunning victories over disease. There would have been no Salk vaccine against polio without staying with Mrs. Hauser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Blank.

Based on representative retail prices for regular grade gasoline, the combined tax rate of more than 10 cents a gallon is equivalent to a 20 per cent sales tax. Or, to put it another way, one out of every three dollars paid for gasoline goes directly for taxes.

Pack 163 Holds Pinewood Derby

Cub Scout Pack 163 had its monthly meeting at Dunced Jr. High School and it was a jam-packed evening. Two new boys were initiated into the pack and earned their bobcat rank; Robert Schenk and Matthew Haigh. The uniform inspection flag was worn by Mrs. Palmer's Den 10, and the attendance flag by Mrs. Fleischacker's Den 8.

A FINE DISPLAY of anti-litter campaign posters designed by the boys were exhibited, and plans for a June 8 outing at Camp Desborn were discussed. Advancement awards were given followed by the highlight of the evening - the pinewood derby.

An impressive display of racers made by the boys with the assistance of their fathers preceded the races. Individual den awards were presented to the following members for the fastest cars in their dens: Den 1 - Randy Rundle, Den 2 - Keith Jones, Den 3 - Greg Schatler, Den 5 - Billy Weaver, Den 6 - Harvey Sell, Den 9 - Glen Fleischacker, Den 10 - Jimmy Devito, and Webelos - Donald Crouse.

IN THE FINALS, Randy Rundle's racer was matched against Donald Crouse's. Randy Rundle was awarded the winner's trophy.

Several dens now have openings and applicants should contact Oris H. Opt' Holt at GR. 4-7653 for further information.
