

OK Realtor Hal Rowe For Multiple Listing

On Wednesday March 27th, the Board of Directors of the United Northwestern Realty Association unanimously approved North Farmington Realty, with offices in the Kendallwood Professional Center, for membership in the Multiple Listing Service established in 1920.

Richard Funk, chairman of the Board of Directors for the Association, said "Realtor Hal

VNA Committee Of Farmington Holds Meeting

The Visiting Nurse Association Committee of Farmington met April 5 at the Southern Oakland County Branch of the V.N.A. in Royal Oak. Mrs. Ann Mok, District nurse of the branch acted as hostess.

Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Mok took the group on a tour of the office, showing the equipment they keep on hand and then she showed slides of several families the Nurses have visited.

There have been 89 visits made by the V.N.A. in Farmington in the month of March. A total of 213 visits in the last three months.

The committee's May meeting will be a field trip through the Shaw, Linda Combes, Carol Crump and Wendy Beemer. Kim's grandmother was on hand to read the girls' fortunes in tea leaves.

Also celebrating their birthdays recently were Vic Crump with a family party and Mrs. Shaw with a theatre party at the Fisher Theatre.

Another celebration took place at the home of Joanson.

Ed Mosshamer Sings in Alma College Choir on Eastern Tour

Edgar Mosshamer son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Mosshamer, 3102 Moore Drive, Farmington, is spending spring vacation on tour with the Alma College Cappella Choir.

The 45-voice group will make its appearance in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and New York. Concerts are scheduled for Cleveland Heights, Philadelphia, Albany, New York, the Boston area, and a Good Friday service in Niagara Falls.

THE CONCERTS include a full range of music style. Some of the religious selections are Pachelbel's "Magnificat," the "Lamentations of Jeremiah" by Giastera, Lot's "Crucifixus" and the "Tree of Sorrow" by Chavez.

Soloists are Paul Bergman, tenor; Linda Robison, Karen McLeod, Margot Phelps, soprano; Karen Ottwell, Danielle Dyer, alto.

JOAN BROWN GR. 6-1159

Kim Bridges celebrated her tenth birthday a week ago Sunday. There to help her with the ice cream and cake were Pam Shaw, Linda Combes, Carol Crump and Wendy Beemer.

GENE AND PAT HILL are back from Aspen where they flew for eight days of skiing. Accompanying them were twelve couples from the Detroit area, including a fellow skiing instructor from Brighton. It seems that Gene didn't get enough skiing on his vacation because he went to Boyne for the weekend.

The local bridge club met last week at the home of Joanson.

Brown, first and second prizes went to Nancy Grant and Joan Brown. The next meeting will be at the home of Catharine Stevens on May 6th.

Sharon Yates arrived home from Bowling Green College last Friday for her spring vacation. She will return to college next Tuesday.

Lands a Whopper

Fishing in the Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament on a recent vacation in Florida, Christopher Northmore, 18277 Grand Duke Drive, won angling recognition for landing a 26 lb. barracuda in the general division.

Kappa Delta Plans Annual Election

Sixty-three members and guests of Kappa Delta's North-west Suburban Alumnae Association attended the Fisher Theatre's special Sunday performance of "Milk and Honey," on April 7.

The society will donate its share of the ticket-sale profit to its national philanthropy, a crippled children's hospital in Virginia.

KAPPA DELTA officers for 1963-64 will be elected at the April 15 meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Benjamin, 33294 Craftsburg, Farmington.

"Rescue Breathing," a color, sound film, is also scheduled to be shown at the meeting.
