CONGRATULATIONS were extended to the winner and runner-up in this year's Farmington Optimist Club Oratorical Contest, held at Botsford Inn on Tuesday evening, April 7. Being presented with the first place trophy by Farmington Optimist Club President Don Vokes (L) is Ron Schulze while Craig Anderson receives the Optimist Club plaque from Boys Work Chairman Royce Norton. Both contestants are ninth graders at Farmington Junior High School. Ron will represent the Farmington Optimist Club at the District Oratorical Contest to be held April 22.

Optimist Club Oratorical Contest Winners Announced

The Farmington Optimist Club staged their second annual oratorical contest Tuesday evening, April 7, at Botsford Inn with the title, "Optimism: Formula for Freedom," the subject for the five-minute speeches by the contestants.

This year's winning contestant for the Farmington Optimist Club was 14-year-old Ron Schulze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schulz of 2444 St. Paul in Farmington. Runners-up were 15-year-old Craig Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of 2309 Valley View in Farmington, and 15-year-old Don Vokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Vokes of 2810 Halsted road in Farmington.

Wedding Vows Spoken By Pair in Franklin, Pa.

Miss Peggy Lorraine Brake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy C. Brakeman of 428 Woodland Drive in Franklin, Pennsylvania, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Robert Bruce Gringor, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Gringor of 2810 Halsted road in Farmington, in the First Presbyterian Church of Franklin, Pa., Saturday, March 21.

Presiding over the 1:30 p.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. Adolph Kunen, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian Church.

THE BRIDE WORE a full length gown of taffeta designed with classic lines, fitted bodice, long sleeves, bow at waistline and unpressed pleats fell into a court train. Her headpiece was a large taffeta rose with seed pearls, securing a shoulder length veil.

The bridal bouquet was a cymbidium orchid showered with white satin streamers and stephanotis.

Miss Sally Brown of Cleveland acted as the maid of honor. She wore a long dress of azure crystal with elbow length sleeves and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums in shades of lavender and blue.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Lester and Mrs. Oliver Wertz. They wore gowns matching that worn by the maid of honor. Their headpieces were Dior bows encircled with veiling and their

Johnny Ginger To Appear at M'belt PTA Fair

Hi! Hi! Come to the Fair! Middlebelt P.T.A. is planning an exciting day for the entire family on Saturday, April 25, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.

HIGHLIGHTING the afternoon's activities will be that WXYZ celebrity Johnny Ginger. Shows will be at 4 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

Tickets are available at the door or through the school office.

For the mothers, there will be needlework, a baked goods department and the country store, which will feature plants, white elephants and home canned goods; for the youngsters there will be the game room, snack room, silhouettes, make-up room, cake walk and all kinds of goodies to nibble on; for the teenagers will be a room for dancing and listening to records; and then Dad can relax in the Coffee Shop over a cup of coffee. The Coffee Shop will also have other food items to tempt the appetite.
