SUMMER SIZZLERS

QUANTITIES ARE LIMITED. NOT ALL ITEMS IN EVERY STORE

I am writing this column to you nice people from the porch of my parents' cottage near Caseville, Michigan, where I have been enjoying swimming, walking along the lakeshore, and wandering in the woods.

Little Johnny Arkesyven has been quite ill with roseola, and was ill when Mary and Shel Hedges were visiting from Kalamazoo. Ellen Hedges stayed here when her parents returned home. She visited with the Naumans part of the week and then with the Brittons. The Brittons will take Ellen home to Kalamazoo, and Bonnie will stay there for a visit.

Sue Nauman met the Jajichs on the New York Turnpike while she was on a vacation trip to Washington, D.C., New Jersey, and Niagara Falls with relatives. The other Nauman teenagers are also traveling this summer. The family took Nancy to Kalamazoo June 29, and she stayed with the Hedges for two weeks.

KATHY AND JANICE Young earned money for a bus trip to Iowa where they visited Diane Sheldon who used to live in Briar Hill, after a week. Diane came home with them for a visit.

The Marvin twins flew to Florida to visit Betty's father. Meanwhile the rest of the family spent Dick's vacation up north.

Two names to add to the All-Star group are Randy Dunigan and Bill Newman. There is a correction for the last list: Dave Nauman was the player; and his dad, Bill Nauman, was an umpire.

Briar Hill has several new families. Loren and Esther Peck, their two children, Nancy and Jim; and their dog, Thunder, moved into Herrig's former home on Ravenscroft. Nancy, 13, and Jim, 11, are planning to attend Dunclel Jr. High this fall. Loren works with Bob Young at the Curtis Publishing Company.

THE PECKS COME from Wabash, Indiana. Loren is a flying enthusiast, the family enjoys boating and water skiing, and Esther and Loren would like to bowl in the Briar Hill leagues.

Richard and Nell Sessions are now living in O'Neal's former home on Dick's street for Marathon Oil Company in general sales. Dick's home town is Findlay, Ohio; and Nell comes from the same city, Tennessee. They have been in Michigan ten years.

Their favorite pastime is fishing, and they recently returned from a fishing trip in Canada.

JOSEPH AND BETTY Hecuba moved into Deats' former home on Briar on a couple of weeks ago. Their three children are Gregory, Jeffery, three, and Tammy, 10 and a half months. Their dog, Sandy, is mostly poodle. Joe works for S. J. Tutag Pharmaceuticals as a salesman. He is a native Detroit, and Betty comes from Pontiac. They are both interested in bowling with our leagues.
