

Auto Firm Moves Here

The Industrial Polishing and Buffing Company recently re-located its operations from Detroit to Livonia. It was disclosed by Dan Andrew, the City's Industrial Coordinator, H. V. Peterson, owner of the firm, and a resident of Livonia, stated that they process zinc and aluminum castings for the automotive and furniture industries.

The plant, which is located at 12350 Farmington Road, operates on a two-shift, five day per week basis. Real estate negotiations were conducted by Sidney Schott and Associates.

Two R. U. Graduating Classes Planning 10 Year Reunion

Ten years pass swiftly, and for two graduating classes of Redford Union High School it's getting time for reunions.

The January and June 1955 classes have set July 10 as the date for their first reunion. And members of the 1956 class are starting a year in advance to plan theirs.

The 1955 gala event takes place in the form of a dinner-dance at Bonnie Brook Country Club, Telegraph and Eight Mile, on July 10. Ticket information is available by calling Irene McCamant, EE 7-4013, or Donna Freeman, EL 6-6046.

Help is being sought by those planning next year's 1956 class reunion. Persons interested in helping to plan it should contact Bob Wangchiburi, 5141 Busch, Warren.

Missing from the class' roster are the following, and those knowing their whereabouts should contact Wangchiburi: Harrison A. Beal, William Becker, Bonnie Barringer, Marjorie Conyne, Joan Cole, Jack Conley, Mary Cook, Diane Dodds, Elaine Elder, Raymond Fischer, Annette Greenleaf, William Hinchey, Joseph Hatch, Judith Hubbard, Marie Isaac.

By JERRY WENDT MORE ON HAWAII

We were interrupted in our account of the week of the Hawaiian party at the Chambers and the Bolls, gave together. It was a very noteworthy occasion. A three-piece Hawaiian band provided the musical background. Blue and white striped tents covered the patio and lawn where tables had been set up. Punch bowls of carved ice held baby orchids and miniature palm trees. A traditional Hawaiian buffet contained many native goods including roast pig, complete with apple in mouth. HIGHLIGHT OF THE PARTY was when the Chambers had their Tennessee Walkers brought over from Clarkston. The beautiful spiritied steed were put through their paces for the guests. Kathleen Bell had her very own walker, "Gumbo".

AUTHENTIC HAWAIIAN COSTUMES were worn by many of the guests. Seen here and there in bright colored gowns were Mrs. Robert Day, Glanvyn, Mrs. Milton Koster, Mrs. Donald McLennon. Also among the nearly 175 attending guests were the John Leishak's, Ann and John Martin, Jackie and Ron Sherman, Jane and Paul Fritsching, Phyllis and Bill Scott. New neighbors, Walt and Joyce Curtis also attended.

VACATIONS AND WEDDINGS take precedence during the summer months and a bumper crop of both are crowding the calendar.

DIANE DWYER who will be marrying Frederick G. Taylor, Jr., of Berkeley in October, has already chosen her bridal attendants. Kathy Thompson, Nancy Girakis, sisters Nancy and Mary Dwyer and Sandi Taylor (Frederick's sister) will make up the party. The Dwyers are one of Farmington's old families and there will be many parties to mark Diane's wedding. Her visit shower will be in all places. Sincerely, Illinois. Diane will be visiting there and her relatives will mark the occasion with a miscellaneous shower.

AUGUST 19 is the date of Sharon Ann Binders' wedding to Harry Stoddard. Both Sharon and Harry reside in Farmington. The wedding will take place at St. Alexander's. Preceding Sharon up the aisle will be Ann O'Keefe, as maid of honor and Nancy Sisty will be bridesmaid. Loyd Yee, that's the correct spelling) will be his brother's best man. The reception is scheduled for Bolsford Inn. Sharon, a popular member of the personnel department at Bolsford General Hospital, was surprised by her co-workers with her first shower, a miscellaneous Mrs. Fisher acted as hostess.

Camp Fire Girls News

Livonia School Camp Fire Girls ended the year with a splash party at the home of Mrs. Peggy Gaymer. Blue Birds from Livonia held a family cookout at the home of Mrs. Marlene Galbros. A fly-up ceremonial was held for two members, highlighted by an original "Liquor" Dance, with the girls wearing Indian gowns they had made.

Blue Birds from Hull School held their annual puppet show at the home of leader Mrs. Betty Skozaki, with their families as guests. The play, "Happiness Brev", was written by the girls and they also made the puppets and scenery. Refreshments were served by the girls after the show.

Several groups concluded the year with ceremonies. Mrs. Marge Thiemann's group and Mrs. Maria Rockwell's group, both from Madison School, held bead ceremonies at which the girls received the various colored beads with which they decorate their jackets and gowns representing achievements in the seven crafts.

Two Camp Fire Groups from Hoover School held joint ceremonies for rank. Mrs. Ann Carey's fourth grade group received the Trail Seeker's rank and Mrs. Jane Endicott's fifth grade group received the rank of Wood Gatherer. Parents were served refreshments prepared by the girls.

Summer Student

Ernest G. Marz at Livonia is participating in the engineering division of the 1965 National High School Institute being held June 27 through July 31 at Northwestern University.

OAKLAND CITIZENS LEAGUE draws many members from the Farmington area. This fine organization is a non-partisan, non-profit organization dedicated to promoting better understanding of the problems of citizens and their solutions. They have just announced the present vice-president for the coming term, Birmingham Patent Attorney Dale A. Winge is the new president and Francis M. Fisher of Bloomfield Hills is the new vice-president.

MRS. JOHN MERESHAK now holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education. Wayne State University conferred this on her at commencement exercises held June 10.

She is a library science major and will teach in the Southfield Schools next semester. Family, including three grandchildren, gathered at her home last week to celebrate the occasion. The following week, twenty women surprised Betty with a dinner in her honor at the home of Mrs. Norman Seay.

THE PLEASANT climate of Walnut Creek, California, is so pleasant that Mrs. Louise Burns of Berwick — Livonia will be moving there. Another inducement is that she will be joining her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Singrey. Plans are already in progress for a return visit to her neighbors.

THE ANDREW PELTOS of Farmington Rd. returned from a two week trip to Naples, Florida where they enjoyed the gorgeous weather and fishing trips. Along with oranges, grapefruit, and peaches they brought back a palm tree which they hope to grow here.

OU Music School Opens

Oakland University's new Meadow Brook School of Music opened on Tuesday, July 6, when some 45 students and conductors registered for the six-week instrumental program.

The school is unique in that it will combine the teaching talents of members of the Detroit Symphony and of its conductor Sixten Ehrling, here for the six-week Meadow Brook Festival, with many distinguished visiting musicians, and the OU music faculty. Ehrling is music director of the summer school; Robert Shaw, noted associate conductor of the Cleveland Symphony, is director of the Institute of Choral Studies; and Detroit's Symphony flutist Albert Wipion, is assistant director of the school and conductor of the student orchestra.

Each student will participate in one of the five organizations, take private lessons, and either enroll in an academic course or take lessons in another instrument.

Picture Talk by Les Wilson

Fill Up — Your Camera

You've seen those gas station signs that reach out to you as though you were about to cross the Sahara Desert. "Last station before U. S. 49." "Last station before tumblepie." "Your last chance to fill up." "I've been thinking about it myself. Next opening a gas station, but just putting up a sign. Last chance to fill your picture-needs before you go on vacation.

Get enough film now! Sure, almost anywhere you go you can get Kodak film. But when a picture happens, the film must be in your camera. When fun keeps happening, you need more film on hand, where you can put it to work.

How about that camera? Is it in good working order? Let us give it a check-up before you leave. Tell us about the last couple of rolls you shot. Could they have been better? Maybe a new KODAK INSTANTLOAD camera is the answer to your picture-problems. These instant-loading, automatic camera are available in still models for snapshotting, and now, in movie cameras for taking the new Super 8 movies.

A few minutes of honest advice now may make a lot of difference in your vacation pictures this year. We'll be glad to demonstrate the new cameras, and to discuss what part they may play in your summer plans. Ask us.
