

THE FARMINGTON FLYERS hockey team scored some impressive successes at the Dayton Invitational hockey tournament staged over the weekend. The All-Star team of the Flyers is pictured above with the Championship trophy won in the Dayton ice action. Eldest with the Farmington skaters is their coach Doug Akin.

THE CHARTERED BUS that took the Farmington Flyers to the Dayton Invitational Hockey Tournament caused somewhat of a stir last Friday before departure from the Downtown Farmington Center and again as the teams returned late Sunday night. The Farmington hockey teams fared well in the two-day Dayton journey and competed with teams as far apart as Alabama and Ontario.

Farmington Flyers Hockey Team All-Stars Win Tourney Crown

The Farmington Flyers All-Stars and the Farmington Flyers Hockey Club coaches by Doug Akin left from the Farmington Center on Friday evening, March 19, for the DAYTON ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL TOURNAMENT in Dayton, Ohio. During the two-day weekend they each played three games in the tournament, with the Farmington Flyers All-

Stars playing Port Huron for the Championship. Final scores: Farmington 7 - Port Huron 6 in overtime game. THE FARMINGTON Flyers played Huntsville, Alabama in their final playoff game, with a score of Huntsville 2 - Farmington 11.

These boys range in age from 14 to 18, and represented the community of Farmington very well. Many Farmington people made the trip to Dayton with the boys: Doug Akin, Coach, and Mrs. Akin; Harry Fitzpatrick, Mgr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick; Bill Rank, Treasurer, and Mrs. Rank; Phil Stewart, Secretary; Russell Ellis, one of the sponsors of the team and Mrs. Ellis; Mr. Ellis made most meaningful presents for the teams. 30 boys made up the two teams with approximately 30 adults making the trip with them.

THE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER award went to Tom Schlack; HIGHEST POINTS SCORED award went to Greg Schwartz with 10 goals and 8 assists in three games. Trophies were awarded to the boys, and a 30 inch trophy to the team.

Civille To Tutor Swimmers

Swimming instructions for students will be offered at Clarenceville High School beginning April 16, with registration on April 9 between 9 a.m. and 12 noon. The cost per ten week session is $5 and must be paid to the Clarenceville School District with the time of registration. Student classes will be held on Saturdays, the times depending upon the number enrolled.

YMCA Informal Ed Classes Start Soon

YMCA Informal Education classes will begin the week of March 28 emphasizing the Creativity of Living. YMCA instruction is a must and classes will operate only if there is sufficient enrollment.

Classes in Creative Living BEGINNING SEWING: Mondays 9:30-11:30 a.m. Instructor, Irene MacKinnon; 2 to 5 years old. A highly qualified and experienced nursery teacher will work with the children in a most meaningful program for pre-schoolers. A fee of $1 per family per week will be charged for this service—a minimum of 4 families per class. (The nursery fee must be paid at or before the first class.)

FARMINGTON BASEBALL FOR BOYS
Calendar of Events for 1966
LITTLE LEAGUE
WEDNESDAY, March 23 Spring Rally for Little League, Coll. and Pony Leagues: 7:45 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. in Farmington Jr. High School gym.
SATURDAY, March 26 & April 2
Registration for Little League, Coll. and Pony Leagues: 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Farmington Jr. High School gym. New players must bring birth certificates.
WEDNESDAY, April 6
Evening registration for Little League, Coll. and Pony Leagues: 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Farmington Jr. High School. New players must bring birth certificates. (Final registration for the 1966 season.)

Clases In Creative Living
BEGINNING SEWING: Mondays 9:30-11:30 a.m. Instructor, Irene MacKinnon; 2 to 5 years old. A highly qualified and experienced nursery teacher will work with the children in a most meaningful program for pre-schoolers. A fee of $1 per family per week will be charged for this service—a minimum of 4 families per class. (The nursery fee must be paid at or before the first class.)

YMCA REGISTRATION BLANK
MAIL TODAY TO: YMCA, BOX 334 - Farmington
Please sign me up for the course in _____
NAME _____ PHONE _____
ADDRESS _____ CITY _____
YMCA MEMBER? _____ EXPIRATION DATE _____
NURSERY CARE NEEDED? _____
ENCLOSED IS: MY CHECK FOR $ _____ MONEY ORDER _____
FARMINGTON AREA YMCA 474-3232
(CLASSES BEGIN JANUARY 17)

Call the Farmington Area YMCA at 474-3232 for information on any of these classes!
Note: A YMCA Membership has been included in the course fee except where the Y Member fee is shown. This is an annual adult membership in the Farmington Area YMCA.
GOLF INSTRUCTION: Details to be worked out depending on weather conditions. If you are interested in golf, call the Y and details will be sent when available.
YMCAs In Creative Living
BEGINNING SEWING: Mondays 9:30-11:30 a.m. Instructor, Irene MacKinnon; 2 to 5 years old. A highly qualified and experienced nursery teacher will work with the children in a most meaningful program for pre-schoolers. A fee of $1 per family per week will be charged for this service—a minimum of 4 families per class. (The nursery fee must be paid at or before the first class.)

Farmington's Men with the Colors

George B. Shelton
Aboard Cutter
Seaman Apprentice George B. Shelton, Jr., USN, member of 30115 S. Stockton, Farmington, is currently deployed to Ocean Station 8196 over 1,000 miles west of San Francisco aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Wachusett, operating out of Seattle, Washington.

Serving Aboard
Navy's USS Severn
Seaman Alan E. Boyd, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Boyd of 2623 Folsom in Farmington is serving in the Mediterranean with the Sixth Fleet as a crewmember aboard the fleet oiler USS Severn.

As an ocean station vessel the cutter rotates with other cutters, standing month-long watches at sea performing a multi-purpose task.
On station as part of the U.S. contribution to the International Civil Aviation Organization, the vessel collects weather data for use by transoceanic flights, and provides a navigational checkpoint for aircraft by confirming positions through radar "fixes" and sending radio beacon navigational signals.

PVT. E/T. TIMOTHY J. MCART, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McCart of 21815 Alyce in Farmington, is pictured above (center) with the local U.S. Army recruiters, Sgt. Jack Hooper (left) and Sgt. Kowalewski with three trophies he earned in basic training camp at Fort Knox, Ky. Pvt. McCart swept list top awards, Outstanding Trainee Award, Highest Proficiency Test Score and Top Marksmanship Award. He also was the first trainee to earn a Meritorious Promotion after basic training, he enlisted Jan. 3 and is in the Army's personnel management training program, is a 1965 graduate of North Farmington High School where he was a four-year veteran on the gymnastics team. He has a brother, Tom, who is a member of the NFHS State Championship gymnastics team this year.

About halfway through with her deployment to the Mediterranean, Severn has steamed about 10,000 miles since leaving her homeport of Newport, R.I.
Severn has recently completed visits to Malta and Italy.

Her other duties include scientific studies of the ocean, which includes taking water samples, wave measurements and collecting samples of microscopic plant life for the Coast Guard Oceanographic Unit in Washington, D.C.

Farmington Marine Completes Training

Marine Private Gregory Lustig, son of Mr. Richard Lustig of 2027 Meadowlark St. in Farmington, has completed a 12-day training and processing cycle with Staging Battalion 4 of the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Undergoing Basic Training in Navy

Seaman Recruit Mack Schlicht, 18, USN, son of Mr. Darrell Schlicht of 22609 Middlebelt Road in Farmington, is undergoing seven weeks of basic training at the Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Illinois.

Seaman Leo R. Rupp In Mediterranean

Seaman Leo R. Rupp, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Rupp of 28730 Grand River, Farmington, participated in "Fairgame IV", a joint U.S. and NATO ships and planes operating in the Mediterranean. Besides fuel, Severn also delivers drugged lubricants, bottled gases, mail, movies and spare parts to naval units of the Sixth Fleet.
About halfway through with her deployment to the Mediterranean, Severn has steamed about 10,000 miles since leaving her homeport of Newport, R.I.
Severn has recently completed visits to Malta and Italy.

Attending Fort Lee Logistics School

John H. McKalg, of 31875 Bella Vista in Farmington, is attending the Defense Inventory Management Course of the U.S. Army Logistics Management Center, Fort Lee, Virginia.

This refresher training stresses the principles of small unit tactics, with particular emphasis on the fundamentals of scouting and patrolling, and land navigation. Day and night tactical maneuvers provide the individual Marine with an opportunity to improve his skill as a combat infantryman.
Marines completing this training are assigned to combat units overseas.

Under the supervision of veteran Navy petty officers, he is receiving instructions in naval history and organization, customs and courtesies, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, damage control, first aid, swimming and survival, shipboard drills and sentry duty.

MARINE PVT. BETTS

Local Boy Trains Aboard Destroyer

Engineer First Class Cecil C. Kellogg, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kellogg of 2216 Gill Road, Farmington, has completed his two weeks of annual active duty for training aboard the destroyer USS Halibut (DD-795) in Long Beach, Calif.

Completing Training Pvt. Daniel Korbin

Pvt. Daniel J. Korbin, son of the W. Korbin of 18220 Floral Street in Farmington, has completed an aircraft maintenance course at the Army Aviation School, Fort Rucker, Alabama. His wife, Judy, lives in Livonia.

Military drills are emphasized during recruit training, and with various inspections and a planned physical fitness program, keep the recruits mentally and physically alert.
Upon completion of recruit training, he will be assigned to a school, shore station or ship, according to the results of his Navy classification tests, his own desires and the needs of the Navy.

Marine Private Terry L. Betts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Betts, Jr. of 27580 Spring Valley Drive in Farmington, has completed individual combat training at Camp Pendleton, California. The four-week course included over 200 hours of instruction under simulated combat conditions, covering squad tactics, guerrilla warfare, day and night combat, patrolling and the use of infantry weapons. His next stop is four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field. Marines to be assigned to infantry units will be taught infantry sub-specialties, such as the machine gun, grenade launcher, rifle and mortar. Marines to be assigned to highly technical specialties will be sent to military technical schools or their specialist training.

Completing Training Pvt. Daniel Korbin

Pvt. Daniel J. Korbin, son of the W. Korbin of 18220 Floral Street in Farmington, has completed an aircraft maintenance course at the Army Aviation School, Fort Rucker, Alabama. His wife, Judy, lives in Livonia.
During the five-week course, Korbin was trained in the repair and maintenance of army helicopters and airplanes. He also learned the fundamentals of army airfield operations.

Richard McGrath has flown his first solo flight in a T-34 "Mentor" training plane thereby completing his first step toward becoming a Navy aviator. He is stationed at Southfield Field, Pensacola, Florida and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. McGrath Jr. of 29226 Wellington in Farmington.

Major Melnek Sent To Army Seminar

Major Stephen P. Melnek of 32083 Bluff Dr., Farmington, has been ordered to two weeks active duty to attend a national security seminar being held at Southern Illinois University's Carbondale campus March 21 to April 1. He is a reservist serving in the U.S. Army Reserve Control Group (Reinforced) U.S. Army Administration Center, St. Louis, Missouri.

Local Private Ends Training

Army Pvt. Henry A. Waskowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor S. Waskowski, 31706 Staman at Fort Knox, Kentucky. He was graduated from Clarenceville High School in 1965 and was employed by Ford Motor Company, Wixom, before entering the Army.

The 19-year-old soldier entered the Army in November 1965 and received basic training at Fort Benning, Ga. He was graduated from Clarenceville High School in 1965 and was employed by Ford Motor Company, Wixom, before entering the Army.

Buick's $1,000,000 Sweepstakes

Buick's $1,000,000 Sweepstakes
How would it feel to have an extra $2,332 in cash?

A new list every week from now until March 31st. 429 first prizes.

Table with 10 columns of numbers representing sweepstakes entries.

1916
Driving has Changed
Back in the summer of 1916—when the Auto Club was founded—a motoring trip usually was a pioneering adventure. Packed in with the family were plenty of tools and tires because a good motorist had to be prepared for anything.
Today the best preparation a motorist can have is his Auto Club Membership Card. He knows that his Club Membership will help him LEAD THE WAY to carefree motoring with Personalized Travel Planning Round-the-Clock Road Service ■ Broad Personal Accident Insurance ■ Protective $5,000 Bail Bond.

If you take a minute to check our list of winning vehicle identification numbers, you may know how it feels this week.
The contest's in its last week. So hurry. Here's your chance to win a Buick by checking the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward winning a Buick. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your own vehicle identification number on the poster, the symbols plus the rest of the numbers—$2,332 cash is yours. (Of your money is yours. This ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been listed during the past six weeks. Every week 72 winners were posted on the show room wall.)
You may have missed your number before! No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number.
Contest Rules: Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. P. Cook and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers. If you prefer to compete with the 42,500,000 entries, don't give up. Your numbers may have been listed during the past six weeks. Every week 72 winners were posted on the show room wall. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.

Hurry. Buick's $1,000,000 Sweepstakes is in its last week.
There's an authorized Buick dealer near you. See his Double-Checked sweepstakes card, too.