Joe Bodrie To Execute Fast Draws At Root's

Joe Bodrie, "The Fastest Gun Alive", will make a personal appearance at Bill Root's Folley showroom on Thursday, May 26, at 7:30 p.m.

How fast is he? Joe states he has been timed in the act of drawing, cocking and firing a gun in less than one-fifth of a second. For comparison, he says a better-than-average time is about 2 1/2 times slower than that.

As the former representative of a large firearms manufacturer, Joe spent several years teaching combat shooting.

Since 1958, he has appeared on TV six days to John Bromfield in both the "Sheriff of Cochise" and U.S. "Marshall" shows. He has also been seen with the stars of "Bonanza," "Wyatt Earp," and "Gunsmoke," and been a guest on the Arthur Godfrey show, "Omnibus" and the "Red Foley Show" to name but a few.

While at Bill Root's, Bodrie will demonstrate tricks used by legendary gunfighters of the old West and perform some of the fancy draws and pistol handling that have made Hollywood westerns famous the world over. The show will be sponsored by the dealership's parts and accessories department. Admission is free.

CATHERYN L. MCCOY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McCoy, 32450 Nottingham Knolls, Farmington, and Dr. J. Lee Taylor, assistant professor of horticulture, examine the student's dish garden during a class in basic floral design at Michigan State University. Course material covers identification, culture, propagation and the use of plants. Students learn the principles of flower arrangement, construction of dish gardens and hanging baskets, and the forcing of bulbs. Miss McCoy is an MSU senior majoring in retailing.
