ENTERTAINMENT A GREAT TREAT

The Program Given by Library Association Was Thorough-Enjoyed by Large Crowd

All lovers of music who did not attend the entertainment given by the Library association last Saturday night at the town hall certainly missed a great treat. The entertainment as advertised were bells accompanied by living pictures. The program began promptly at eight o'clock with selections by Pierson's orchestra. This music was further enhanced by two more violin musicians; Harold Turner of Northville and Rev. C. S. Lee.

The first bell of the program was the "Liberty Bell," to which the audience sang "My Country 'Tis of Thee." Miss Edna Warner represented this in a very artistic pose with the American flag draped about her.

Another charming picture was the "Morning Bells," in which Miss Norine Hogle and Miss Edith Ringle posed as Japanese maidens in native costume. These two young ladies represented several bells: "The Evening Bells," an opera scene and "The Irish Belle" to which scene Miss Ella Bullen of Detroit sang "My Irish Rose." To "The Convent Bell," Mrs. Clark of Detroit rendered "The Rosary." She also sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold" when Helen Warner posed as "The Old Fashioned Bell." One of the prettiest belles of the evening was Miss Jeanette Hambleton when she waved her nosegay to the audience as "The Belle of the Future."

There were a dozen bells, all as charming as those described. The hall was darkened and with colored lights upon the stage each picture had individuality of its own.

The entertainment was in charge of Mesdames Hamilton, Whipple, Johnson and Miss Mary Kennedy, assisted by Mrs. T. H. Turner of Northville, and was a financial success, the Library association being enriched to the amount of $15.

This was the first of a series of home talent entertainments, each of which will be given for a good cause. Do not miss the next one, which will be given Friday evening of this week for the benefit of the Guild.

The Rally at Livonia Center
 Quite a number from this vicinity attended the Sunday school rally at Livonia Center Oct. 5. There was a large crowd in attendance. The speakers were all exceptionally good. Prof. Isabel of Plymouth, Samuel Lawrence of Detroit with the new pastor, Rev. Walters of Beeth, gave a grand talk. Mrs. Morgan of New York City touched every one's heart with her plea for the young people and the Sunday school. The music by the choir was excellent as usual under the leadership of C. E. Millard. The solo by Harry Wolfe was fine, as was also the Kingsley quartette.

Everyone went home well pleased with the rally and these gatherings seem to agree with the public's ideas.

Mrs. John Kurz

After a brief illness from heart trouble, Mrs. John Kurz passed away at her home Monday morning. She was 64 years of age and is survived by a husband and five children. The funeral was held from the home Wednesday afternoon and interment was made in West Farmington cemetery.

Ladies' Literary Club
 The Ladies' Literary club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Ella Irish Wednesday afternoon when about 25 members responded to roll call. This year will be devoted to the study of South America and the program for the day was carried out as scheduled.

Mrs. Bertha Steele very uniquely took all the members on a voyage with her and with the aid of a large map traveled through South America until all felt at home in that strange country.

Mrs. Minnie Wilder further introduced the club to the mysteries of that clime by a paper on "Flora, Fauna and Forests," and were also given a bit of the history and struggles of those republics by Mrs. Florence Moore.

Mrs. Edna Dolanay favored the members with a piano selection. The next meeting, which will be held next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Minnie Hogle, will be devoted to the study of Argentina.

Mrs. Sarah Jackson

Mrs. Sarah Jackson, who had resided in Farmington for many years, passed away at her home on Rogers street last Friday morning.

Sarah Turner Jackson was born August 14, 1830, in Sheffield, England. Soon after her marriage they came to America and immediately settled in Farmington. To this union were born five children, two of whom have passed away—George who died in January, 1911, and Joseph, who passed away ten years ago. The surviving members of the family are two sons, Robert of Flint and Frank of Northville, and a daughter, Fanny of Farmington. Since the death of her husband, July 3, 1905, Mrs. Jackson had resided at the home on Rogers street.

The funeral was held from the home Sunday and interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Grand Gardens Subdivision
 One needs only to take a trip over the Grand River road to Detroit and note the wonderful growth that has taken place during the past two years to realize the value of an investment in the new subdivisions along the line.

One of the latest is the new Grand Gardens subdivision at Clarenceville, which has just been put on the market. This place has advantages which other acre property has not, and that is, the real benefits of a village. Clarenceville has two good stores, a school and churches, telephones, electric lights and all the conveniences of a small town.

It is just starting and as this paper predicted a short time ago will grow into a fine little village within the next few years.

People who invest a little money in Clarenceville now will have no regrets in time to come.

A Contrast in Weddings

On Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 7 and 8, the Sunday school will give an altogether new entertainment—"A Contrast in Weddings." The primary department will give a "Tom Thumb Wedding" and the young ladies a "Japanese Wedding." A special kitchen orchestra will give interesting music in the interval. We also hope to have a seven-piece orchestra to assist. Everyone make up their mind to attend this novel entertainment.

Dinner Served at High Noon

The Rebelkabs will serve a twelve o'clock dinner at Odd Fellows hall next Wednesday. That date is the last day of the Sunday school convention. The public is invited to this meal for which there will be a charge of 25c.

A SPOOKEY TIME

Guests Afraid of the Dark and Spooks Couldn't Stand the Light

The October monthly meeting of the Farmington Guild was held at the home of Mr and Mrs. John Clark last Monday evening. This season of the year permitted the entertainment committee to plan a Halloween entertainment.

One of the specialties of the evening was a "spook dance." All of the guests took part in this, but only about half of the spooks completed their role, for some of the guests lost their courage in the dark and the spooks lost their gruesomeness in the light.

The guests numbering about 70 were served to a buffet luncheon of sweet cider and doughnuts.

Breaks Leg for Third Time

Wm. Shear has had the misfortune to break his leg again. In stepping off the walk he accidentally stepped into a hole and stumpling his limb was fractured about three inches below where it was broken recently. The accident occurred near the crosswalk at Rogers and Division streets.
