

Schoolcraft Sets Plans For Fall Registration

As more than 3,000 packets mail last week, Schoolcraft of registration material for College Registrar Norman E. the fall term went into the Dunn issued a last-minute word of advice to all students who have been admitted and are planning to enroll. "Students who do not receive their packet by Friday, Aug. 18, should contact the Registrar's Office at once," Dunn said.

The Registrar explained that while his advice was intended for all students, freshmen, sophomores, day or evening. "We are particularly interested in those sophomore students who have not yet been counseled."

The deadline for counseling, Dunn explained, is Wednesday, Aug. 23. Students who have been accepted for admission but who have not been counseled should contact the Counseling Office at the college for an appointment.

Dunn also announced another deadline for the registration period.

Evening students who intend to register by mail must return a completed registration form and a tuition check no later than Aug. 21, Dunn said. "Returns postmarked after midnight, Aug. 21, will not be processed, and the student will have to register in person at the college."

The registration packet mailed to day student contains forms an instruction sheet, a schedule of classes, a registration appointment slip, a car registration card, and—for male students—Selective Service information.

Registration at the college is Aug. 28 through 30. Classes for the fall term start Thursday, Aug. 31. Those who fail to register during the regular period will be charged a late registration fee, Dunn said.

College officials are expecting a record enrollment of about 4,000 for the 18-week term which ends Dec. 21.
