Local News

Carl Ely of the Park Garage was looking after business matters in Detroit Monday.

Mrs. M. Miller and daughter of Springfield, Ontario are visiting at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. Harry Rear.

Wm. Goers has taken the agency for the Oakland cars, for Farmington township, and expects to receive a six demonstrator Saturday.

The first real thunderstorm of any moment, that has visited this section passed over the village early Wednesday morning, followed by a good soaking rain.

Rev. and Mrs. A. Stange are receiving a pleasant visit from their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Rupp, of Port Clinton, Ohio, and also from a nephew and his daughter of New York. They expect to spend several weeks here.

Mrs. Estella Harrington, of Detroit, and known to many local people passed away at her home early Tuesday morning. She was the mother of Wilbur Harrington and Mrs. Romaine Gilbert, of Detroit who survive her. Funeral services over the remains, were conducted at Northville Thursday afternoon.

The rumor that the change of Rural Routes would not be made as scheduled for August 1, is entirely without foundation, and carriers will take out the longer routes for the first time Monday morning. The new order is to be given a thorough trial.

The Cavalry of the Romans. Devoted as the Romans were to war, the cavalry was an important part of the army. A great deal of adverse criticism has been passed upon their horsemanship and skill in managing the cavalry. The Prussian hussar officer Warming pronounces Caesar an indifferent cavalry general and ridicules his arrangements where cavalry are concerned. Caesar, however, conquered all the same. His famous horse, credited with having a human fore foot, was equal to the star eyed goddess herself for victory.

Death of Horace Green

The sad news of the death of Horace A. Green of West Bloomfield township, was received here Sunday, death having occurred on that date. Deceased was nearly 80 years of age at the time of death.

He was a charter member of Farmington Lodge No. 151, F. & A. M., and a large delegation from the local lodge attended the funeral services, held from the family home on Tuesday afternoon.

He was well known and highly respected in this locality, and the sympathy of many friends goes out to the mourning relatives.

Enterprise only $1.00 a year.

Death of Miss Burlison

The sad news of the death of Miss Georgia Burlison will be received with deep regret by the many friends in this community, the Grim Reaper having invaded the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. McManus with whom deceased had made her home for many years past, early this Friday morning.

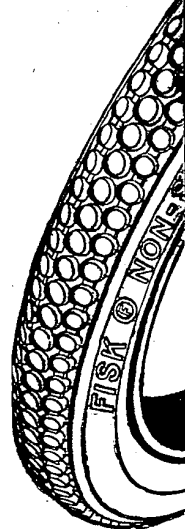

The aged lady had been suffering from heart trouble, and had been under the constant care of physicians during the past eleven weeks.

Funeral services will be held from the home Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, eastern standard time. The remains will be accompanied to Victor, New York, Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Pierson, the latter a niece of deceased, where they will be laid at rest.

HAPPY LIVING.

The essence of happy living is never to find life dull, never to feel the ugly weariness which comes of overstrain; to be fresh, cheerful, leisurely, sociable, unburdened, well balanced. It seems to me impossible to be these things unless we have time to consider life a little, to deliberate, to select, to abstain. —A. C. Benson.
