

The Farmington Enterprise

VOL. XXX No. 45.

FARMINGTON, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1916.

$1.00 A YEAR.

Fifteen Dollars or 20 Days.

The case of the people vs. Tony Tibideau, in which Mark Preston had Tibideau arrested on a charge of assault and battery, was called before Justice Thayer Monday morning.

Tibideau pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and $5 costs, or spend 15 days in the county jail. The fine was paid and Tibideau allowed to go.

Three Watches Gone.

Ben Grace tells us he has had three watches taken from his room at the hotel in the past four years. About four years ago, according to Mr. Grace's story some one entered his room and took his gold watch, valued at about $40. Two years ago the same thing happened.

The hotel has been closed for the past three or four weeks on account of sickness, but on Thursday last some one entered his room and made away with the third timepiece.

Gave Them a Welcome.

A "refreshing shower" was given Harry and Irene Wolfe at the home of the groom's parents last Saturday evening, when neighbors and friends gathered to wish the young couple a happy and prosperous life; also giving a remembrance of the kindly and neighborly token of friendship. A good supper was served and Harry wishes to express for his bride as well as himself the pleasure of seeing the familiar faces, and thanks everyone for their interest and kindly welcome.

They All Help.

A lady remarked the other day: "I don't care to have my name in the paper every week, but we have friends in Dakota who get the Enterprise each week, and we know they are glad to hear of us. The Enterprise, to the 'faraway' is like a long letter from home, or from friends. Would you believe it! We have subscribers in nearly every state of the U. S., and some in the faraway places, besides a long list in Detroit, Pontiac, Lansing, Northville, Plymouth, Walled Lake and Redford. So remember your little or big newsletters, and hand them the local reporter, Mrs. George P. Conroy, or phone them in to No. 25. They will be as 'bread cast upon the waters' for the 'away from home' folks, and we will be glad to get them, as every item makes the paper more interesting. A brisk up-to-date paper is a sure sign of the same kind of a town.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES

Newsy Items Taken From Other Papers in and About the County.

A strange coincident happened at the primary election Tuesday. Asa Randolph called for a Republican ballot and was given No. 37. Then he called to mind that he was just 37 years of age that very day.—Northville Record.

New conditions of travel on the highways will soon require all drivers of rigs, whether horses and wagons or automobiles, to place lights on their rigs. It even looks as if pedestrians may yet have to be double lighted as a safety precaution.—Ex.

Walter Hoffman who Purchased a new separator this fall, had the misfortune to lose this machine Monday afternoon when an explosion occurred in the blower, setting fire to the barn in which the machine was set and destroying both barn and machine.—South Lyon Herald.

Farmers say that early potatoes, unless they were planted real early, are a very short crop around here, and judging from the difficulty in getting potatoes from the groceries, they speak the truth. Late potatoes however, where there has been plenty of rain, are expected to yield very well.—Holly Advertiser.

The State Game Fish and Forestry department have two men with 3,000 feet of nets catching garfish, better known as billfish, out of Pettibone lake. The nets are about five feet wide and of varying lengths, and are set at the surface by floats at night and taken in in the morning. The first night's haul at the Pettibone was 52 garfish. A large number of these enemies of food fish have been taken out and a lot of good evidently done. Roy Williams is one of the operators.—Milford Times.

Obituary.

Mariette Horton was born at Farmington, Oakland Co., Michigan, January 15, 1838, and married William T. Daines December 31, 1863. Died August 30, 1916.

Mrs. Daines joined the Methodist church at an early age, and began a church work which she kept up as long as her health would permit. She acted as organist at the church in Southfield, where she moved with her husband soon after her marriage.

In 1877 she again moved with her husband to a farm near Farmington, living there until they retired from the farm and moved to the village of Farmington. She still continued her church work and was for many years president of the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church.

In her sweet, gentle ways she won the love of all who knew her. Passing has left a sweet memory and a better world for her having lived in it.

She leaves to mourn her death, besides a husband, one son, Fred W., a daughter, Jennie D. Carr, of Pontiac, and four grandsons.

In our memory we can hear her: We can see her form that once was fair, But we know that she has left us.

When we see the vacant chair, She has gone on just before us, And we miss her, O' so often.

In that home beyond the river, She'll be waiting for us there, For she gained a home eternal.

When she left the vacant chair, Other chairs will soon be vacant; Your work and mine will soon be o'er; One by one we'll cross the river.

All to meet on the Golden shore. And when we've all received God's welcome

To the beautiful Isle of somewhere And we meet for that grand reunion We trust there will be no vacant chair.

EDWIN P. DAINES, Lancing.

Bring in your old car and drive home a new Saxon. W. H. Lee & Sons, Farmington.
