ANOTHER SERIOUS AUTO ACCIDENT

Milford Man Sustains Broken Leg When Machine Goes Into Ditch.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, of Milford, made a trip to Detroit last Sunday to hear "Billy" Sunday, in the former's automobile, and on the return trip ran into a ditch between Oakwood cemetery and John Landau's residence, Mr. Price receiving a badly broken leg in an attempt to jump from the car, about 7:30.

As Mr. Crawford who was driving, reached the cemetery a horse and buggy was ahead of him and he was driving slow, but as he attempted to swing out a machine came from the west, the lights of which, when they appeared from behind the buggy, blinded him and the Crawford car went into the ditch.

Mr. Price, when he saw the machine headed for the ditch attempted to jump and fell in such a manner as to receive three bad fractures of the leg between the knee and ankle, besides having the ligaments of his ankle and foot badly torn loose. The machine that caused the trouble did not stop to see what damage they had done, and no clue as to their identity was obtained. None of the Crawford's had a chance of getting the license numbers of the other car.

Mr. Price was taken to the home of John Landau, where the services of both local physicians were secured, the leg set, and Mr. Price made as comfortable as possible, the physicians asserting that the break was bad one, and Mr. Price would be lucky if amputation did not become necessary. He was taken to his home in Milford Monday, and latest reports state that he is getting along as well as could be expected, amputation not being probable.

The Crawford machine was not badly damaged, and none of the other occupants were injured beyond a bad shaking up.

This makes the second accident that has occurred within the limits of the village inside of a week, and both due to the carelessness of the drivers of the machines that were not in an way injured. Had the driver who compelled Mr. Crawford to go into the ditch "dimmed" his lights as he swung around the horse and buggy the accident would undoubtedly have been averted.

Return the Books.

The only way for our library to progress and thrive is for each person who enjoys the privilege of using the books to look out for each one carefully; use it and punctually return it at the expiration of the allotted time.

Such a system would always find books in good condition and in their respective place; otherwise books are lost or neglected, making it very inconvenient for the one in attendance at the library.

At present the book "K" has failed to reappear and it is requested that it be returned as early as possible. It is wanted at the library.

Buy Canvas and Jersey Gloves of Cook & Co.

The sixth grade are reading "Just David." Claude Leet absent Wednesday on account of sickness.

The fifth grade are reviewing the study of South America.

La Mar Fleury has left school here, having moved to Pontiac. The eighth grade is now reading Hawthorne's "The Great Stone Face."

One new enrollment in second intermediate room this week, Homer Teller.

Eighth grade arithmetic are working in factoring and greatest common divisors.

The play given by the Literary and Athletic society was to have been given Thursday evening, October 19, but has been postponed until Tuesday evening, October 24. Admission is ten cents. Everybody come. Remember it is in the old high school.

Pleasant Meeting.

The North Farmington Auxiliary met Tuesday afternoon at the pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Melow. A time to be remembered by all is reported.

About 45 were present, mostly ladies, and to say they could not boast of many men, but the few there were will verify the fact that it was one social event of the season.

Plans were made for a bazaar, to be held the third Tuesday in November at the home of Mrs. Jessie Power, and a great feature of the bazaar is the chicken pie dinner to be served upon that occasion. If you want pretty things for Christmas gifts, and a splendid dinner, don't forget the place and date.

Golden Wedding

The golden wedding reception given on Wednesday afternoon at the Universal church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele proved much more than a successful social function; it was a most delightful reunion of widely scattered relatives and friends, many of whom in years gone by had been co-members with Mr. and Mrs. Steele of the old church, and who came back to this reunion with heartfelt joy.

The church was converted for this occasion into a home, decorated with the beautiful autumn foliage, pictures, flowers and the usual surroundings of domestic life. In spite of the fact that gifts, outside of the immediate family, were interdicted, there were a number, that of the children being fifty dollars in gold, the Ladies' Union a chair, and other friends tokens of love, both valuable and beautiful, including many lovely flowers.

There were nearly 200 guests in attendance, including Rev. and Mrs. Willis A. Moore of Detroit.

Miss Mary Kennedy sang the "Golden Wedding," and Dr. Moore contributed several appropriate songs, concluding with a "Perfect Day."

Dr. Moore and Rev. Dunham M. Ward, of Pontiac, a friend and neighbor from boyhood days, expressed in behalf of all present, congratulations and appreciations of a happy occasion.

A snow storm swept lake Superior Monday, about three inches falling at Calumet and other northern points. A regular blizzard raging on the lake, forcing all boats to seek shelter.

See the Kansas Immigrants at the high school next Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock.

For Sale—Second hand "Studebaker" seven passenger, Six-Cylinder, only $600.00. H. W. Lee & Sons, Farmington.

The Rebekah interment committee will give a dance the last Friday in October, the 27th.

KILLED BOY AT NORTHVILLE

D. U. R. Car Run Over Boy—Leg and Arm Severed From Body.

As the D. U. R. car due here at 7:55 was entering Northville Tuesday morning, in charge of Curtis Nunn as conductor, and David Woodruff as motorman, they struck Charles Alger, aged 14 years, severing the right arm and leg, when rounding the last curve, opposite the mill, before entering the village. The boy died a few hours later.

Young Alger, who is said to have been subject to fits, had been walking along the tracks and fell across the rails as a fit attacked him. He was dressed in clothes so nearly the color of the leaves which littered the tracks that Motorman Woodruff did not notice the boy until within 20 or 30 feet of the body.

When Mr. Woodruff observed the boy lying across the track he at once applied the brakes, but owing to the slippery condition of the rails he was not able to stop the car in time to prevent striking the boy.

The fender of the car pushed the body partly off the track, leaving one arm and leg to be caught by the wheels, and cut off.

No blame is attached to the motorman, witnesses stating he did all that could have been done to avert the accident.

Entertained By Mrs. Doyle.

About 35 members and friends of the Unity club met with Mrs. Adaline Green October 11th, and were delightfully entertained by readings given in a most pleasing manner by Mrs. A. F. Doyle, of Chicago.

Mrs. Doyle is a favorite with the ladies' societies of North Farmington, having entertained them on several occasions. Mrs. Doyle very graciously responded to many queries and requests for favorite selections. Reluctantly the club adjourned and were served to tea.

Mrs. Nettie Hulet, of Detroit, was also present and added much to the entertainment by her pleasing rendering of several familiar songs.

The Seven-mile road is paved from the "Five Points" east to the Meyers road. The 28-ton mixer is working east from the later point and the small mixer is working west from Woodward avenue so that with anything like fair weather the paving from Grand River avenue to Woodward avenue will be completed before winter.—Redford Record.

Articles of association have been filed with the secretary of state by the Standard Gravel company of Milford and Pontiac. The capitalization is for $50,000 and it is the intention of the company to engage in the handling of all materials for road building. The stock holders are: Olney A. Slater, Franklin A. Slater Jr., and George E. Sutton, all of Pontiac, and all of whom are connected with the Slater Construction company. The scene of the activity is the Roy Moore farm near New Hudson.—Milford Times.

Harold, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Revold, Griggs street, while making a short cut to school Tuesday noon, and crossing the Chapman dam at Pine street, in some unknown way fell into the water and was drowned. His pet dog, which was with him, gave the alarm by his constant barking, which attracted Charles Smith to the scene. The body was recovered from the water, and, though still alive, he passed away a short time later, despite prompt medical attention.—Rochester Clarion.

CHURCH NOTES

Salem Evangelical

Rev. A. C. Stange will preach in the Farmington German church next Sunday morning at 10:30 sun time.

Baptist Church.

Church at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school 11:30 a. m., and evening service at 7:30. Rev. Salton, of Detroit, preaching.

All are cordially invited to attend the church services, especially the Sunday school, which will be made as interesting as possible.

Come and bring a friend. The Dorcas society of the Baptist church had an all day meet at the home of Mrs. Minnie Wilber Wednesday, October 19, which was a decided success, and showed a marked increase in the enthusiasm which the society started out with.

A quilting bee was the main feature during the middle part of the day. Devotional meeting at 2:30, led by Mrs. G. B. Reading. Subject, "Lost Sheep of the House of Israel." Thoughts presented were that joy, merriment and laughter were necessary to dispel gloom, anger and sadness. This lesson proved very interesting.

A nice dinner; also a fine self-supper helped make the day a success. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Hess. Subject for devotional lesson: "Martha and Mary;" which do you favor? Why? Which did the most good? A general discussion will be held.

This meeting will be next Wednesday, and is called at 1:30 to give ample time for devotional and business hours. The Dorcas society will hold a bazaar and bake sale November 25th. Particulars later.

Methodist Church

Last Sunday morning a very fine congregation greeted the pastor. The congregations are larger each week; let us make next Sunday morning a record for church attendance in Farmington.

The pastor will preach on the theme "The Transforming God," at the morning service. Sunday next. It will be a message that will inspire. Do not fail to hear it.

You will find a hearty welcome at the Sunday school session. There are classes for all. Come and study the bible with us next Sunday morning.

The evening congregations are growing from week to week. Shall we see you there next Sunday evening? Mrs. Priestly has promised to sing for us at this service. The pastor's message will be a strong personal appeal.

The official board will meet Friday afternoon at 1:30, in Fred M. Warner Co's office. Let every member of the board be present.

Married at Detroit

John Archibald Price, of Ames, Iowa, and Miss Edith Ringel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ringel, of Farmington were quietly married at the home of Rev. George Gulien, in Detroit, Tuesday afternoon, October 17, 1916.

Mr. Price, who is connected with the Ames Daily Times, was formerly editor of the Farmington Enterprise, and is well known here, while Miss Ringel is one of Farmington's best known and highly respected young ladies, having graduated from our high school with the class of 1915, and they will receive the well wishes of many friends in this locality, in which the enterprise heartily joins.

Mr. and Mrs. Price left immediately for their future home in Ames.

Fine new home for sale by Fred M. Warner. Cook & Co. are showing a large stock of leather gloves and mittens. We need the money. Why? The price of print paper has advanced only 500 per cent.
