

Madonna Alumni Launch Holiday Fund Campaign

The alumni of Madonna College, Livonia, have revitalized the annual Giving Fund by appealing for a "holiday gift" to Madonna's general fund.

In a letter to the college's 1300 men and women alumni, friends of the college and corporations, campaign co-chairmen Mrs. Virginia Gruska of Dearborn and Mrs. Bette Arzarian of Lincoln Park have enlisted the aid of comic strip character Linus in describing the college's need for a "security blanket."

"Private colleges need a security blanket, too," they said, indicating that donations make up the difference between income from tuition and grants and actual costs of operation.

"Gifts have provided the margin enabling Madonna College to operate in the black throughout its 72-year history," they said, "even while developing new curricula, building extensive facilities, and doubling enrollment since 1966."

While launching the campaign in December may have its drawbacks, the co-chairmen admitted, it has a practical appeal to those conscious of tax breaks provided donors to private colleges.

"Because of Michigan Public Act 315, a gift of $25 to Madonna may cost the donor only $9." Mrs. Arzarian pointed out.

"And what better time of year than Christmas to make a gift to a private college continuing the Christian commitment to mankind?" she asked.

Mrs. Natalie LaCroix of Lathrup Village, chairman of the Madonna alumni board, is assisting Mrs. Arzarian and Mrs. Gruska with the campaign.

Young Hunters

A total of 65 boys and girls recently completed hunter safety classes at Schoolcraft College. Classes were on four consecutive Saturday mornings. The seven-hour program is required of those 12 to 18 years old for their first hunting license.

Cuatt Named Firm Associate

Cuatt was project manager with prime responsibility for the projects the firm designs for Michigan Bell Telephone Company throughout the state.

Flashbacks Are Bad Head Trip

Q: What are flashbacks caused from and how long do they last?

A: Flashbacks are generally not a physical problem but a bad head trip, caused by the past use, or abuse of drugs. However, some people using drugs can experience flashback at the time of use. There is no specific answer as to the duration of time that you can expect a flashback to go on.

Flashbacks are difficult to describe, memory jumping to things stored in the brain, an incomplete thought brought back during a flashback, or mass confusion.

It can be a frightening experience. If you would like to talk about flashback on a more specific level, drop in at the Livonia Aide Crisis Center - 33110 Five Mile.

If you can't stop in, call the Livonia/Westland Crisis Line - 281-DRUG.

These toys are hand-made entirely out of wood. They contain no metal or plastic parts and are designed to be safe, sturdy and durable for play indoors and out.

Depending upon the complexity of the combinations, these toys are engrossing fun for children all the way from one to ten years (and more than one Dad has been captivated by the family cargo ship).

They are made so well that these children may still have them for THEIR CHILDREN to play with.
