Deadline set to file petitions

Interested in running for a Clarenceville School Board seat in the June 3 election?

If you are, get your petitions from the board office at 2828 Eight Mile east of Middle Belt, and file them by the 4 p.m., Monday, May 12, deadline.

The board has two terms expiring with the winners of the four-year terms taking office July 1. Board incumbents Dr. Samuel Prisk and Thomas Wilson terms expire this summer.

Potential candidates in the Clarenceville or Schoolcraft College board elections may get petitions between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Clarenceville candidates are required to have valid signatures of at least 20 registered voters on petitions while Schoolcraft candidates must have from 50 to 200 signatures filed.

The local board and college board candidates are the only decisions Clarenceville voters have to decide June 3. There are no proposals on the ballot.
