

2 Ministers Named For St. Matthews

REV. PAUL HART

REV. HAL FERRIS

The Rev. Paul T. Hart, from Oak Park Methodist Church, Flint, and the Rev. Hal Ferris, formerly Evangelical United Brethren area youth director, are the new spiritual heads of St. Matthews United Methodist Church, Livonia.

Appointment of the two ministers, Rev. Hart with Methodist training and Rev. Ferris with an E.U.B. background, reflects the merger between the two churches that is recent on a national basis and of several years standing at St. Matthews.

Rev. Hart has served in Michigan as a Methodist minister for 40 years. He is presently on the Metropolitan Co-ordinating Committee and president of the Detroit Conference Board of Missions.

Active in civic affairs, Rev. Hart has been a member of Kiwanis and served on a city advisory committee for Urban Renewal in Pontiac and Flint.

Rev. Ferris, a 1964 graduate of Western Michigan University, was ordained in 1967 at Christ Methodist Church in Lansing.

He has served in pastorates in Cloverdale, E.U.B. Church, Pipestone Circuit, E.U.B., and Portage Prairie United Methodist Church.

The Rev. John Grenfell left St. Matthews recently to become minister of the First Methodist Church at Port Huron.

Via Ireland

Two Methodist lay preachers from Ireland, Robert Strawbridge and Philip Embury, introduced Methodism to America, just 10 years before the American Revolution.

Israeli Trees Will Honor Kennedy

A forest in Israel will be planted in honor of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy. It was announced by Herman L. Weisman, president of the Jewish National Fund of America.

The forest will be located within the confines of the John F. Kennedy Peace Forest, situated in the Judean mountains, south of the city of Jerusalem.

The church's former pastor, the Rev. Ernest L. Otter, was appointed the second appointment of his ministerial career, as pastor of St. Luke Methodist Church, 39851 Five Mile, Plymouth.

"We are very happy with the Plymouth community and this area," said Rev. Otter, whose last congregation was in Coochville, near Saginaw.

Rev. Otter and his wife, Christie, have two children: a girl, Kelly, three; and a son, Ernest, 4 1/2.

The next four Tuesday services in the series will be held in Antioch Lutheran, Antioch, Orchard Methodist and North Farmington Baptist are joining forces at our Lady of Mercy High School, Farmington, will provide the music. Selections will include "When the Saints Go Marching In," "Amen" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

The Rev. Carl Kaitreider, pastor of Antioch Lutheran Church, will serve as liturgist and preach the sermon.

"Convention sites are selected with care, and worshippers of many racial backgrounds confidently expect to assemble in tranquil family groups.

"Our religion is all-important to us and the result is a strongly knit group of people who remain undivided by political, ethnic or social factors.

Count Of Catholics Up In State

The number of Catholics in Michigan increased by more than 39,000 during 1967, the Michigan Catholic Conference (MCC) reports.

The MCC said there were 2,711,481 Catholics in Michigan on Jan. 1 of this year compared to 2,672,483 on the same date in 1967.

Catholics make up 27 per cent of Michigan's total population of 8.4 million. Nationally, 24 per cent of all Americans are Catholic.

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF Detroit—an eight-county area in Southeastern Michigan—has the largest concentration of Catholics, 1,549,594, an increase of about 150,000 in the past year.

The Lansing Diocese has 649,504 Catholics, an increase of more than 21,000 compared to a year ago.

THE CATHOLIC POPULATION of other Dioceses in Michigan include: Grand Rapids Diocese, a 29-county area in Western and Northern Michigan, has 155,000, an increase of more than 2,000.

Saginaw Diocese, a 16-county area in Eastern and Northern Michigan, has 649,504 Catholics, an increase of nearly 7,000.

Marquette Diocese, which includes all of the Upper Peninsula, 104,290 Catholics, a decrease of more than 3,000.

Using as his sermon topic, "Crime In The Open Country," Dr. Samuel H. Cassel, senior minister of the First Congregational Church, Wayne, will occupy the pulpit at North Congregational Church, Southfield on Sunday, July 7.

Dr. Cassel attended Denison University, received his AB degree from Southmore and his BD degree from Colgate Rochester Divinity School. He was ordained in 1935 and did his graduate work in Geneva, Switzerland, and at Oberlin School of Theology. After 25 years at Fairview Park, Cleveland, he came to Wayne in the spring of 1965.

IN MAKING the announcement of the forest, Weisman declared "Once again, in the span of five short years, the Jewish National Fund has been called upon to translate and express the pent-up feelings of Americans throughout the nation in an hour of mourning."

Just as the John F. Kennedy Memorial and Peace Forest now transforms a Judean mountainside and covers it with a mantle of green in tribute to a beloved and inspiring president, so have we been asked to perform the same tribute for his younger brother who gallantly championed the cause of peace, freedom and brotherhood for all the peoples of the world.

"The trees in the Robert F. Kennedy Forest will bear mute but eloquent witness to a leader who has been asked to lead down in the full vigor of his manhood."

"We meet in large gatherings every summer and this one is no exception," Stuzma explains. "Our families are going into Detroit during our vacation period because we recognize that households are strengthened through stronger family worship."

"Convention sites are selected with care, and worshippers of many racial backgrounds confidently expect to assemble in tranquil family groups.

"Our religion is all-important to us and the result is a strongly knit group of people who remain undivided by political, ethnic or social factors.

Watch Tower Meeting Set In Detroit July 11-14

Jehovah's Witnesses in this area will hold their annual Watch Tower Convention in downtown Detroit July 11 to 14. Announcing the meet, Farnest Szalma, presiding minister of the Witnesses Farmington congregation, said his sect was not seeking to avoid the inactivity of the summer months.

"Jehovah's Witnesses are no strangers to violence," he stated. "Although many racializing family groups may shun metropolitan areas for fear of a repeat of last summer's disturbances, Witnesses will be converging on 36 cities in the continental United States during July and August."

THE DETROIT meeting, like others around the country, will be called "Good News for All Nations."
