Briar Hill NEWS

Fran Mann, 626-5946

The end of June found the Wally Neumann family of Bea-contrae flying to San Francisco. After seeing the sights there, they rented a car and drove down the California coast - stopping at Yosemite and Carmel - and then to Disneyland. They also got down to Mexico and saw their first and last bullfight.

Flying from Los Angeles, they went to Las Vegas and spent three leisurely days before returning home.

LAST THURSDAY, Jeri entered the family dog, Echo, in the Pet Show at the Farmington Festival and he performed so well he got second prize for best-trained from a field of 40 or more dogs. Someone's hard work paid off.

The end of July found Janet Cassidy celebrating a birthday on the 29th. Gary Schenkel the son and Mike Hargrave also on the 29th. And Miss Cindy Terreberry celebrates her birthday Aug. 3.

After saying goodbye to friends at the Fourth of July celebration, Shirley and Wade Sloan of Ravenscroft caught a plane in Chicago and flew to Tokyo, Japan. They found the temples - gardens - geisha houses.

Then they went on to Taiwan where signs of poverty were everywhere - right across from their hotel were miserable little shacks that people lived in.

At many of the hotels they saw our fighting men from Vietnam, there for rest and recuperation.

Next stop was Hong Kong where they went "out of their minds" ordering clothes.

Hawaii was too commercial for them - or too American after their Asian tour.

SON JOHN graduated from Eastern Michigan this June and two weeks later found himself in Officers' Training Camp at Ft. Riley, Kansas. He should be home early in August.
