Melodrama Joins Village Repertory

A train chugged across the stage of the Henry Ford Museum Theatre July 29, but the heroine jumped in just in time to keep it from impaling her boy friend on its cowcatcher.

The scene climaxes several exciting plot twists that contain all of the elements associated with broad melodrama.

That's as it should be since the play, "Under the Gaslight," was penned by the man who originated the device of tying the hero to a railroad track.

Another Daly drama, the farce "Needles and Pins" opened the season in early July.

The fourth play of the season will open on Aug. 12. It, too, is a Daly-written comedy entitled "Horizon."

With the opening of the last play, summer theatre-goers may attend a different play on any four consecutive nights.

The season continues through Sept. 14.

MIA FARROW doesn't know it yet, but the charm given her by Ruth Gordon in "Rosemary's Baby" is satanic.

Verdi Opera Slated

Cornell MacNeil, Roberta Peters, Jan Peerce, and Ezio Flagello will appear with the Meadow Brook Orchestra and Chorus in a concert performance of Verdi's "Rigoletto" at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 7.

James Levine, musical director of the Meadow Brook Orchestra, will conduct in the Baldwin Pavilion at Oakland University.

To be sung in Italian, the program features Cornell MacNeil as Rigoletto, Miss Peters as Gilda, Jan Peerce as The Duke, and Ezio Flagello as Sparafucile and Mantovano.

The Meadow Brook Orchestra and Chorus are composed of talented musicians selected by audition. They have come to Meadow Brook from 44 states and 14 foreign countries for a summer of professional study and performance with leading artists of the musical world.

Singles Club Seeks Singles

The Klub, an organization for singles 21 and over, has been busy getting acquainted with singles throughout the area.

Realizing that it is hard for singles to meet those with like situations, The Klub provides an excellent opportunity for those people willing to get out and form new friendships.

A New Year's Eve Party (in August this year!) will be held August 7, 1968 at "3000" Bowl, Pontiac, for singles.

SATELLITE MESSAGES

A personal transceiver, which man can use to speak to any person on earth, could possibly replace the telephone, as we know it today by 1985.

ON TAXES

Gary Frink knows that taxes are hitting you hard. He's paying them too. And his four years in Washington, with the Departments of Commerce and Health, Education & Welfare and the White House convinced him that Americans of moderate income are paying more than their share of the bill of government.
