Missionaries will visit

DR. GLEN R. ESCHTRUTH, JR.

Dr. and Mrs. Glen Eschtruth will speak to United Methodist women of First United Methodist Church of Farmington Wednesday, Jan. 14 at 10 a.m. The session is open to the public in the church located at Grand River and Warner.

The couple are Methodist missionaries who have served in Zaire, Africa, since 1961. Dr. Eschtruth, currently on sabbatical leave, is in charge of the medical work at Barnet Memorial Hospital in Kapinga.

In addition to supervising the medical work, he has helped establish 18 rural clinics and has been instrumental in setting up a United Methodist radio network in Zaire, providing communication between isolated mission stations. Since 1970, Dr. Eschtruth has been the general medical director of the Methodist Church Zaire Conference in addition to his duties as medical director. Dr. and Mrs. Eschtruth were recently made deans at the Barnet Memorial Hospital in Kapinga. The main reason for their visit to the church is to speak to the women of the church about the mission program of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Eschtruth is a native American, took his bachelor of arts degree from Auburn College and a medical degree from Wayne State University. His surgical residencies were spent at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital and Detroit General. He was a U.S. Air Force surgeon for two years and chief of surgery of the Air Force Hospital at Cape Canaveral.

His wife was born in Kinde, Mich. and took her bachelor of arts from Auburn College. Before becoming a missionary, she was a dietitian at Grace Hospital.

The couple have three children.

Israeli leader visiting area

Mrs. Santa Josephthal, long-time Israeli leader, will be in Detroit as a scholar-in-residence from Jan. 7-21. Mrs. Josephthal's Detroit visit is sponsored by the Detroit Zionist Federation and is part of a program to promote and encourage personal interaction between scholars and the community. She will be addressing varied groups including the Congregation of Adas Shalom Men's Club, The Labor Zionist Alliance and Detroit Round Table of Christians and Jews.

Sacrament of penance topic for workshop

A discussion about the celebration of the sacrament of penance according to the new rite in the Catholic church will be the subject of the first of a series of six spring workshops sponsored by the Center for Pastoral Studies at St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, Orchard Lake.

The workshop is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 13, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Dombrowski Fieldhouse multi-purpose room on the seminary campus, at Orchard Lake and Commerce Roads in West Bloomfield Township.

The fee for the workshop is $18, including the cost of materials. For information about registration, write to Carl L. Middleton Jr., Center for Pastoral Studies, Orchard Lake Seminary, Orchard Lake, MI 48064.

OTHER WORKSHOPS in the spring series will include: "Medical-Moral Decision Making," Feb. 3; "Counseling and Responsible Parenthood," Feb. 10; "Teaching the Old Testament," Feb. 24; "Decision and Discernment in Spiritual Direction," March 9; and "Christianizing the Dying Process," March 16. Middleton and Fr. Anthony Komik will conduct the workshop on penance, which Middleton describes as a "must" for teachers, religious catechists, and others who must prepare themselves and others to celebrate the sacrament in the new rite.

Fr. Komik, the dean of the seminary, is a member of a number of local and national theological committees, the author of numerous articles and a noted lecturer.

He is chairman of the committee on the study of human sexuality of the theological society of America. Middleton is director of continuing education for the Orchard Lake Seminary and coordinator of the workshop series. He is on the seminary faculty, is an author and lecturer. Recently, Middleton co-authored the "Handbook of Moral Development and Conscience Formation."

BESIDES FR. KOMIK and Middleton, Fr. Robert Wernick, a member of the seminary faculty, and Sister Elizabeth Picken, the director of adult education at St. Clement's Parish, Romeo, also will be conducting workshops.

Participants who attend at least three workshops may receive graduate academic credit toward either the master of arts degree in theology or the master of divinity degree offered by St. Cyril and Methodius Seminary.
