

2 area club professionals are honored by state PGA

Tom Deaton and Al Mengert have been named the 1975 Michigan Professional Golf Association co-winners of the year, according to Roger Van Dyke, president of the Michigan Section of the PGA.

Deaton, a Southfield resident, is the head professional at Franklin Hills Country Club and a former Michigan PGA champion. He recorded strong showings in the Michigan Open, Michigan PGA, and Detroit Area Chevrolet Tournaments.

Mengert, head pro at the Oakland Hills Country Club, won the Chevrolet Tournament in his quest for the top state honor. He also posted an outstanding record in sectional events across the country, winning the Pacific Northwest Open and the New Jersey Open.

Both golfers finished the season with 56 1/2 points, based on their performances in the Michigan Open, the Michigan PGA, the Chevrolet Tournament, the U.S. Open, National PGA and PGA club professionals championship.

The golfers will receive their awards at the Michigan Section's spring meeting.

'Y' gymnasts to open season

The Gym-Js, a girls' gymnastics team sponsored by the Farmington YMCA, will open its season on Sunday (Jan. 10) with a meet against the Downriver YMCA. The meet begins at 1 p.m. at Westbrook Elementary School, 21120 Osmus, Farmington.

The Gym-Js, coached by Jim Haske, are girls from ages eight to 16
