Workshop on death planned in February

St. Gerard Catholic Church, 1800 Pembroke, Detroit, will sponsor a workshop on death and dying Friday and Saturday, Feb. 8 and 9, with sessions from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. both days.

"Living with Hope" will be the theme.

The Rev. Don Worthing, chaplain at Mt. Carmel Hospital in Detroit, will keynote the workshop, speaking on general attitudes on death and dying, including fears, feelings and faith.

Other speakers will include Sister Ruth Glaser, of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Harper rehabilitation center, talking about ministry to the permanently disabled, and the Rev. James Meyer, Children's Hospital chaplain, who will tell of work with critically ill and dying children and their parents.

Sister Joyce DeShano, of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Detroit will talk on response to the terminally ill, and the Rev. Robert Weikert, chaplain of the same hospital, will consider ways to express grief.

Also listed as speakers are the Rev. Lawrence DuCharme, St. John Hospital chaplain, speaking on when to let the patient die; Don Baker of Catholic Social Services, who will speak on dealing with the aged; and the Rev. Larry Ventline, St. Gerard deacon, who will discuss the stages of death acceptance.

Sister JoAnn Veltsee, who works with the cancer foundation, will discuss terminal illness. The Rev. James Schwick, St. Gerard co-pastor will talk on sacraments to the sick. Also planning talks are John O'Brien, a funeral director, and Jack Herrington, an attorney who will discuss estate planning and wills.

Nancy Wood, coordinator of the home visitation team at St. Gerard, will discuss formation of such a team in home parishes.

Cost for the workshop is $1 for the keynote address only or $3 for the two days of sessions.

Moral perspectives

What's the purpose of higher education?

It's hard to dispute a popular sentiment—that one does not need a high-powered education to make a good living.

College graduates are not assured of any higher incomes than those who choose to take up employment as soon as is legally permissible. In fact, if one is selective in choosing the areas for comparison, it can be easily shown that college graduates earn considerably less than others.

The economic return of the "education-investment" has become an important factor in our day. If there is an increasing number of people who "learn to earn" money, then we have no one to blame but ourselves. That is, if we regard this utilitarian feature of education as its reason for being.

Cults will be discussed

Cults will be the subject of a meeting Sunday, Jan. 18 at 2 p.m. of the Citizens Freedom Foundation, a group founded to oppose the practices of certain religious cults.

To be held in St. Olaf Lutheran Church, 15701 James Cassens, Detroit, the meeting will feature talks by ex-cult members, a deprogrammer, hypnotist, members of the clergy and counselors.

TAKING THE CUE from Holy Scriptures which reminds us that money is immoral, but love for it can become evil ("The love of money is the root of all evil," 1 Timothy 6:10), there is something basically amiss in our life style if all we intend education to provide is a way to make money.

But there may be another purpose for education, such as development of the kind of human being in whom the record of humanity's past, seen against the hopes of the future, is intended to be in the present. If that purpose is important, then the spite of budget cuts for education throughout the state must become urgent issues for review and resolution.

THE ECONOMIC utility of education is admittedly an attractive feature that sells bond issues and millage increases. The use of education to assist a person in a greater integration of humanity's past and future to be developed in the present, is considerably less marketable.

Resolving our current educational crisis will take some doing. We are the products of our own schools and we have learned well.

But earning a good living is not the same as living an inclusive life. So when the latter is jeopardized by the demands of the former, we should make that effort to lift the purpose and practice of education above the return it may bring to our pocketbooks.

ISRAEL BORN TO DESTINY

The Time To Favor Zion Has Come

The right of the Jew to have a homeland as do all people, has been a matter of debate and issue during much of this century.

Whatever basis for claim the Jew may have upon Israel, is supported by scriptures which foretell that this land was divinely decreed to be his possession. A look at past history proves the futility of man's attempt to solve world problems by pacts, however when God's time for peace on earth is come, it will be accomplished.
