three-all tie. Concourse and Northland both have 9-2-3 records.

Northland's Frank Goldberger opened the scoring against Star. But Star came back with two goals by Jay LePine and single tallies by Jim Feltie and Tony Gucciardo.

Concourse could have taken over first place by beating Holiday Inn, but the latter team refused to go along with the idea. Holiday Inn came from behind three times to gain the tie as Bob Hawk, Bob Wolf and John Gummus provided the goals. Ray Tremblay scored two goals for Concourse, and Marshall Cohen added its other goal.

In another Over 30 game last Thursday, Sawyer-Fuller defeated Suburban Sports Center, 4-1. Bob Kriek, Ron Brewer, Tom Magnell and Arnold Shapero each scored one goal for Sawyer-Fuller, which is 5-3-6. Dennis Bagley scored Suburban's long goal.
