A spirited contest is under way in the suburbs for a board vacancy on the Southeastern Michigan Transportation Authority. At least two candidates from Oakland Coursy, one from Luvingston and a possibility from western Wayne County are seeking the post on SEMTA, the seven-courty agency that intances public bus systems and is planning a rapid transit system. The vacancy will be filled formally March 11 by the general assembly of the Southeast Michigan Council of Covernments (SEMCOG), a voluntary regional planning agency.

Governmenta (SEMOOD), a voluntary regional planning agency. A first look at who has the votes, however, will occur Priday at 2 p m when SEMOOG's executive committee meets in the Michigan Inn in Southfield. The executive committee meets monthly to handle routine material methods and the policy recommendations—such as the SEMTA appointment—to the general assembly, which meets quarterly.

JULIE EVANS, 32, of Birmingham, was one of the first nominees. Her name is being put forward by Alexander C. Perinoff of Southfield the new Democratic chairman of the Oakland County Board of Commissioners Mrs. Evans was the first chairwoman of Regional Citizens and has been a board member of the Birmingham-Bioomfield League of Women Voters.

Stephen J. Tompkins. 62, of Troy has been nominated by Fred D. Houghten of Avon Township, recently ousted as chairman of the Oakland County board by the defection of two Republican commissioners to the

A STRONG factor is likely to be Robert E. FitzPatrick, 41, former chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners and former chairman of SEMCOG.

FitzPatrick moved out of Detroit to Fenton. in Livingston County, after being defeated for the Democratic nomination in the 17th Congressional District in 1874.

PitzPatrick has a business in Li-vonia but has few contacts with the business community there—leading western Wayne County delegates to search for their own candidate.

Livingston County Commissioner John Labelle nominated FitzPatrick. Livingston has never had a SEMTA board member.

WESTERN WAYNE County delegates are particularly eager to come up with a candidate. They argue they have a population nearly equal to Detroit and larger than Oakland or Macomb counties but no SEMTA board member.

When William Marshall, AFL-ClO state president and a resident of Tay-lor, quit the SEMTA board, western Wayne County was left without repre-sentation. An appointee of the gover-
