Mrs. Thomas Lemon

Shirley Jean Mori and Thomas Robert Lemon were wed in St. Mary's Chapel in Mt. Pleasant in rites officiated by Father James Fahey before 150 guests. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mori of Waterview, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lemon of Farmington.

The bride's gown was fashioned of ivory maricane knit with gathered empire bodice, long fitted sleeves and a high, lace-edged neckline. Her floor length gathered skirt fell into a chapel train. Venice lace trimmed the gown, which was accented with pearls. She wore a hooded headpiece and carried a bouquet of roses, carnations and baby's breath.

She was attended by Peggy Zimmer of West Carrollton, O.; Robin Lemon, sister of the groom from Bay City; and Janine Gillan of Mt. Pleasant. Each carried a single rose.

The groom was attended by Jeffery Miller of Mt. Pleasant, Jeffery Bennett of Hastings and Terry Conard of Davison.

The couple received guests in Mt. Pleasant Country Club immediately following the ceremony, then left on a wedding trip to Florida.

Both are students at Central Michigan University.

You own your own land

you want your own house

You own your own land and you want your own house — not one like dozens of others.

At Allstate Homes, we know that the way you live is a personal statement — one which reflects your own good taste and your own special needs.

We can show you hundreds of floorplans in every style — Mediterranean, Contemporary, Tudor. But our models are meant to give you the architectural basics. We want to work with you to create a home that is as unique as your lifestyle demands.

That's why at Allstate, every home we build is a custom home — built to your design.
