

41st Fur SALE

Candy chairman

Dottie Cole is honorary chairman of the 1978 candy sale of the Camp Fire Girls Detroit Area Council, which continues through Feb. 14. Mrs. Cole is a former Camp Fire Girl.

Four classes set by county

Classes on credit, widow's rights, positive listening and Michigan history will be offered Tuesday, Feb. 16, by Oakland County Cooperative Extension Service and Oakland school district.

The sessions will be at 2100 Pontiac Lake, Pontiac.

The credit class will consider credit card laws, how to check credit ratings, how to cancel credit cards and how best to get credit.

Widow's rights class will take up Social Security, final arrangements, accounting and insurance. Ways to increase understanding through listening will be discussed in positive listening, while major events in Michigan's early history will be discussed in the history class. Register by Tuesday, Feb. 3, by contacting Janet Voorheis, Family Living Education, 1025 N. Telegraph, Pontiac 48053.

Classes will meet both in the morning and evening.

Management consultant to speak

Norah Martin, management consultant, will speak at the opening session of the self-start clinic to be sponsored by the Northwest YWCA, 2500 Grand River, Redford Township.

The class will begin Monday, Feb. 2, and will run consecutive Mondays from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Panel presentations on community service, educational opportunities and discussion groups with representatives of various fields of employment also will be part of the clinic.

A session on raising your self-image will be one of the highlights of the first session. The class also will consider value clarification.

Registration fee is $1.50 and reservations should be made at the YWCA by Saturday, Jan. 31. The drop-in nursery is available for pre-schoolers at a nominal fee.

Home nursing class planned

Oakland and Macomb county residents can learn to care for all family members in the home by enrolling in a Red Cross "Home Nursing" course.

Each Monday, beginning Feb. 3 and continuing to March 8 from 1 to 3 p.m. the course will be taught at the Oak Park Red Cross office, 2500 Greenfield. Call the office to register.

Pioneer Women set meeting

Barbara Goodman will speak on women's lib, Jewish style at a meeting of Pioneer Women, Greater Detroit Council Saturday, Jan. 21, at 1 p.m.

The event will take place in the home of Billie Kramer, 2250 Whispering Oak, West Bloomfield. For further information contact the Pioneer Women, 3030 Middle Belt, Farmington Hills.

Singles club plans dance

The Ford Pendulum Singles Club invites singles in the Detroit area to its monthly dance Friday, Jan. 28, at 9 p.m. in the Bonnie Brook Country Club on Telegraph and Eight Mile.

Music will be provided by the Images. For further information write the club, PO Box 642, Dearborn 48121.
