Medical research says that people who stay fit with regular exercise live longer, suffer fewer heart attacks and make a better recovery if they do have one. That's why Exercycle can be the most important 15 minutes of your day. Exercycle's ALL BODY ACTION is scientifically engineered to help you get both kinds of exercise you need: not only conditioning your body, but also thoroughly stimulating your cardiovascular and respiratory systems. Exercycle works with you to help you look better, feel better and maybe last longer. You'll first burn about 300,000 times a day. Why not use a few hundred of those burns to call or drop in and find out more about Exercycle?

Second season for repertory theater

The Southfield Repertory Theatre continues its second season with the rereading production of "Dracula's Treasure" by Dudley Saunders. Performances will be at 1 and 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 7, and Sunday, Feb. 8, in the Southfield Civic Center, 3880 Evergreen, in the Parks and Recreation Center. The cast is headed by Dan Crane as Dracula. A doctoral student in theater and former instructor at Wayne State University, Crane is a winner of the "Irene Ryan Acting Award" for his portrayal of Harry in the production of "Home" performed at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. Ken Straus, who portrays Nicky Boose, is a junior at Southfield-Lathrup High School. The youngest member of SRT.

100BBYO members aid JNF tree drive

Nearly 100 members of the Greater Detroit B'nai B'rith Youth Organization (BBYO) participated in a tree planting drive in Israel through the Jewish National Fund to mark TuB Shevat and JNF month. The youngsters sold several hundred trees at several locations in Southfield. They also canvassed homes. Their eventual goal is to plant a grove of 1,000 trees, which would set a national precedent. Last year they powered the effort by planting a garden of 100 trees.

Three super reasons why so many young families live in 'New American Homes'

One.

Your own lakes & parks for sailing, ice skating, picnics and exploring.

Two.

Private Clubhouse with billiard and activity rooms and swimming pool.

Three.

All the other happy young families for you and your youngsters to grow up with!

Now, if you need more good reasons, pick one of these beauties. You can choose the Jamestowne if you want a spacious, low-cost ranch that is versatile enough for you to expand as your family and income grows.

Or you may want a unique bi-level with a huge unfinished area for an extra hobby, family or living room. That's the New England model.

If you want to go all out, you'll insist on the Williamsburg. A graciously designed colonial that shows that "you've arrived." Now that you've seen the many reasons so many families call this "home," come visit them this weekend.
