North sponsors bloodmobile

North Farmington High School will sponsor a Red Cross Bloodmobile from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday, Feb. 20 in the school's gym.

North, the first high school in Oakland County to sponsor the bloodmobile three years ago, expects to receive more than 100 pints of blood in this year's drive. Last year, 96 pints were donated.

All donors must be at least 18 and weigh more than 110 pounds. Seventeen year olds can donate blood if they have written permission from their parents.

Anyone interested in donating blood should contact William Bruker at North High, 426-2511, to schedule an appointment for their donations.

Harrison High School principal James Geiger flanked by Stuart Landay, Lewis Sandy and Michael Benjamin, three Harrison seniors honored for their performance on the National Engineering Search Test.

Students get top scores

Three Harrison High School seniors have been honored for their high scores in the 1975 National Engineering Aptitude Search Test held at Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Stuart P. Landay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Landay, 3208 Old Franklin Drive in Farmington Hills, received a certificate of honor and a $50 savings bond.

Lewis Sandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sandy, 7018 Springdale in West Bloomfield, received a certificate of honor and a $100 savings bond. He scored 89 per cent out of a possible 100 per cent in the test, which was given to 185 outstanding science classes from 74 high schools.

Michael Benjamin, received an honorable mention. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benjamin, 2573 Chaplewagh Farmington Hills.

The savings bonds were made possible through the School of Engineering at Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Presenting David B. Wilson with his honorable mention award for his high score in the National Engineering Aptitude Search Test is Dr. Stephen Davis, dean of the Lawrence Institute of Technology School of Engineering. Wilson, a senior at North Farmington High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wilson, 28856 Ravenwood in Farmington Hills, is flanked by North principal Lynn Nutter.

Hills firm has open house

Getchell and Associates, Inc., 3107 Northwestern Highway, Farmington Hills, observing its 20th anniversary with an open house on Thursday, Feb. 12, from 1:30-4:30 p.m.

The company provides counsel and systems designs for such facilities as schools, automobile manufacturers, government buildings and health care facilities.

Thomas Duke, a Farmington-based builder, was appointed to the Automobile Club's Michigan Board of Directors. Duke followed his grandfather, and father in the building business when he was 16 years old. He built the Independence Green Golf and Country Club apartment complex and golf course in Farmington. Duke is chairman of the board of Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington and of the First State Bank of Charlevoix.
