

In crime crackdown

Police arrest 9 suspects

The Farmington Hills Police Department has arrested nine persons in the last week, losing investigations into two armed robberies and two cases of larceny.

Two males were apprehended Saturday, Feb. 14 after they held up the Orchard Ridge Marathon Service Station, 2745 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills early that morning, a department spokesman said.

The man apparently came into the station and pulled a gun on the attendant after asking him for change. The two men escaped with approximately $50 in cash, police said.

Armed and charged with armed robbery were Dennis A. Van Wagoner, 18, of 25445 Kureigh Court in Farmington Hills and Russell Adair, 18, of Southfield. They were arraigned Tuesday in 47th District Court before Judge Michael Hand. Bond was set at $10,000 each and a preliminary hearing will be at 10 a.m. Friday, Feb. 20.

The detective bureau also arrested two suspects in connection with the Feb. 13 armed robbery of the Seven-Eleven Food Store, 35508 Nine Mile Road in Farmington Hills. Keith Kashat, 18 and Roger Weller, 17, both of Southfield were picked up by police Sunday morning and were charged with armed robbery. Both were scheduled for arraignment Tuesday afternoon.

In a crackdown by Hills police on thefts of citizens band radios and stereos for automobiles, detectives arrested four men and a woman in the past seven days.

Two brothers and a friend, working as a team, were apprehended by the S.P.O. undercover unit Friday night in the Bedford Hospital parking lot breaking into a car.

Gino Mannarino, 17, his brother Frank, 18 and George Francis, Jr., 20, were arraigned in District Court before Judge

Hand and charged with larceny from a vehicle.

Bond for Gino Mannarino was set at $1,000. For his brother, Frank, $2,500 and $5,000 for Francis. All three pleaded not guilty and are scheduled to appear in court for a preliminary hearing at 10 a.m. Friday.

They remain in Oakland County Jail pending trial.

Two Novi youths were arraigned in District Court before Judge Hand on charges of larceny and entering a vehicle to steal property over $5.

Peter Flaga and Donna Jean Lay, both 17, were charged with stealing stereo and CB radios from a car parked in a Hills subdivision. They were arrested Thursday, Feb. 12.

Ms. Lay was released on personal bond and Flaga remains in police custody in lieu of $2,500 bond. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for Friday morning.

Donald Uphoff of Farmington Hills has been named an instructor in the automotive education program at Northwestern Institute.

Uphoff was vice-president and general manager of Bob Ford Ford in Dearborn. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1951.
