3HO Yoga Foundation sets two new classes

New classes will be available each Monday and Tuesday at the location of Christ Lutheran Church on 14 Mile between Southfield and Evergreen.

Every Monday evening, for five weeks beginning March 13, a "Conscious Cooking Class" will be taught from 6-8 p.m. Vegetarian gourmet cooking without a trace of meat, fish or eggs will be featured. Students will experience the grace and creativity of transforming whole natural foods into exquisite, full-course meals. Since the class size will be limited, you must pre-register. A fee of $20 includes materials needed.

Every Tuesday for five weeks beginning March 14, a "Happening Through Womanhood" creative workshop for women will meet from 1-3 p.m. Women of all ages are welcome to join the classes and to discover the dignity, grace and strength they possess and can develop.

The class consists of special yoga techniques for relaxation and stability, lectures and discussions for self-understanding, meditation, natural hygiene, cooking with natural foods, massage techniques and home remedies.

Ballet company joins flower show

The Michigan Ballet Theatre Company will perform in Orchard Mall Friday evening and Saturday through 4 p.m. on March 13-14.

The dancers will be performing in conjunction with the mall's annual flower show, presenting excerpts from the company's newest ballets.

The company is now preparing for its spring concert, set for Sunday, May 14, in Harrison High School in Farmington.

Artists meet

The Farmington Artists Club will host David Sharpe at his first meeting, Wednesday, March 14, at 7:30 p.m. in Farmington Hills Community Library on Twelve Mile Road.

The program will be a critique. Members are asked to bring two of their most recent works to the meeting to be critiqued by Sharpe.

Give Him a Boost with Sugar, Nature's Quick Energy Food.

Michigan-made sugar was earlier made by Mother Nature to give healthy bodies a boost. Sugar burns fast and efficiently for quick energy. With no fat.

Wondered about calories? Actually, Michigan-made sugar is lower in calories than many other foods — just about 17 calories per teaspoon. And because it's pure carbohydrates, it's the simplest source of muscle energy.

He couldn't have made it any better. Sugar is really your body's best friend.
