Accused safe thief arraigned

Jerry Steca, 38, Livonia, was arraigned last Thursday and charged with stealing a safe containing $2,300 from the Elk Temple, 2288 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills.

Steca was arraigned Thursday, March 4 before 4th District Court Judge Margaret Schaeffer and charged with the November 12, 1973 safe theft.

Bond was set at $20,000 and a court date will be set Friday, March 12. Farmington Hills Police have been investigating the Elk Club burglary since last November and have recently discovered led detectives to the suspect.

John B. Todd of Farmington has been appointed assistant trust officer of National Bank of Detroit. An NBD employee for two years, Todd administers pension and profit-sharing trust accounts for corporations. Previously, he held the positions of trust administrator and senior trust administrator. Before joining NBD he was a stockbroker.

Workshop planned for secretaries

The Greater International Metropolitan Area Council of the National Secretaries Association will have its 24th Annual Secretarial Workshop at Cobo Hall March 13. The workshop concerns "The Secretary of 76" and is open to all secretaries, educators and business people. The day will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will include six different workshops. Remote speaker will be Dr. Myron L. Moore, president of business administration, emeritus at Harvard University. He will speak on "New Opportunities for Secretaries in the Next Decade." Call 982-3888 for further information and registration.
