

A night of disaster, terror, leaves its mark

Capt. Thomas Schriber (right) of the Farmington Hills Police Department confers with Oakland County Sheriff Johannes Spreen and

a pilot from the Detroit Police Department during this past weekend's tornado emergency (Staff photo)

This was a gas station before it was demolished by the sudden tornado. (Photo by Evert)

Reporter Ron Garburski of the Farmington Observer & Eccentric surveys the wreckage of two automobiles which were destroyed during the storm (Staff photo)

A security guard watches surveys the wreckage of the Detroit Bank and Trust Building on Maple Road, after this Winnebago crashed into the side. (Staff photo)

Many persons lost their homes during the tornado. (Photo by Evert)

A wrecked car typified the situation this past weekend as the tornado struck parts of Farmington Hills and West Bloomfield. (Photo by Evert)

SPRING IS HERE!

STROLL

Through landscaped gardens and garden accessory exhibits. As you chat with the exhibitors, ask if they are the "mystery gardener" — if you get the right one, he will give you a complimentary ticket for two to a special Livonia Mall preview of "Robin and Marian" (a $6.00 value) at the Northland Theatre, Tuesday, March 30-70 tickets will be given away daily, Monday, March 22 — Sunday, March 28.

Don't Miss the landscape prize entry blanks. We will be giving away $500 to be spent with one of the displaying landscapers. One entry per person over 18, please!

Drawing, Wednesday, April 7

NOW thru APRIL 4th

Meet the EASTER BUNNY

Now thru April 17th

(10:30 a.m. - 8 p.m. daily
12:30 - 5:00 p.m. Sunday)

FREE SANDERS CHOCOLATE BUNNY

for each little visitor (he's in Crowley Court)
Help the Wayne County EASTER SEALS — these adorable pictures are available in brilliant color and attractive letter. Only $2.50 per picture and a portion of the proceeds goes to the Wayne County Easter Seal Society.

Livonia Mall

7-Mile at Middlebelt
Open 'til 9:00 p.m., Daily
Sunday Noon 'til 5:00 p.m.

