

It's Strawberry Time At YWCA

The Observer

Women

STRAWBERRIES GROW ON DOGWOOD. Mrs. Davis McKenzie and Mrs. Webb Dowler, both of whom are helping to sponsor the annual YWCA Strawberry Festival, are hanging them there.

The annual YWCA Strawberry Festival will be held on the lawn at the YWCA building, 2540 Grand River, at 7 p.m. Thursday, June 5.

Patterned after the old-fashioned ice cream social, the festival is a family affair and will be held outdoors (inside if it rains), with strawberries and ice cream the main items of refreshment.

Entertainment will include a band concert by Hillbert Junior High School Band, selections by the YWCA Serenaders, a piano solo by Laura Kargul, and an appearance by Stuckey School sixth graders who will do two songs in sign language.

The junior high band will furnish music for dancing in the patio and gym.

Mrs. Robert Albertson of Detroit is chairman of the event. Her committee includes Mrs. Helen Ellis, Mrs. Joseph Kut, Mrs. Webb Dowler and Mrs. Lewis McKenzie, all of Redford Township.

There is no admission charge. Refreshments will be sold throughout the evening.

The YWCA is a United Fund Agency.

New Class Aids Communication

A new twist to building effective communications through vocabulary development is being offered in Oakland University's summer adult course program. Oscar Roman, Oak Park school counselor, will lead the evening class in studying word structure and development. His course is designed to help people express their ideas effectively and thus build self-confidence. Adults interested in registering may telephone 338-7211, extension 242.

MARK GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY — Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin A. of 26334 Southwestern, Redford Township, were honored at an open house May 11 celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Friends and relatives attended from as far away as Alaska and California. The couple has 10 children.

Rites Held In Home

A double-ring ceremony Sunday, May 17, Marcia Jean Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell R. Brown of Farmington, and Thomas Michael French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buzz J. French of Birmingham, related their wedding vows. The Rev. Ralph C. Rideout of North Farmington Baptist Church officiated at the family ceremony in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's honor attendant was Janine Thompson of Farmington. The best man was Roger Pearson of Clarkston. Embroidered cotton in a modified empire style fashioned the bride's dress. It had a high-ris, neckline, long flowing sleeves made of tiers banded in lace, and a deep lace inset at the hem.

The shoulder-length veil was held by a cluster of white satin bows, and the bride carried a cascade of white roses surrounded by white carnations and baby's breath.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was held at the hostess' inn. A formal reception was held in the family home Sunday. The following day, the newlyweds went to Niagara Falls for the honeymoon.

Both attend Oakland University and they will make their home near the university.
