JNF office open on Mother's Day

The Jewish National Fund office, 2100 Greenfield, just south of Nine Mile Road in Oak Park, will be open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday, Mother's Day, for the purchase of certificates attesting to the planting of trees in Israel in honor or in memory of mothers or grandmothers.

For information, call the JNF office at 968-0820.

"Say It With Trees" on Mother's Day is the slogan of JNF, according to Mark S. Schlusser of Southfield, president of the Greater Detroit JNF Council.

Mettler-Fridenberg

Debra Ellen Fridenberg and Maynard Daniel Mettler were married recently in a candlelight ceremony at the Raleigh House in Southfield. Rabbi Irwin Tannenbaum and Cantor Norman Rose, both of Temple Emanuel-El of Oak Park, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elben Fridenberg of Southfield. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mettler of Oak Park.

Following a Florida honeymoon, the couple will reside in Southfield.

John Sackett DAR to hear report

Mrs. Walter Fyish, Southfield, will present a report of DAR's Continental Congress, held last week in Washington, D.C., to members of the John Sackett Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, when they meet for a noon luncheon on Saturday, May 8 at the home of Mrs. Robert Segmund, 28525 West Eight Mile, Livonia.

Mrs. Fyish, who is state chairman for DAR schools, has the chapter delegate.

Also on the meeting agenda are the annual reports of officers and committee chairmen and an installation of new officers.

Mayer-Taylor

Frank R. Mayer of Southfield has announced the engagement of his daughter, Wendy Sue, to Ronald Lee Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Taylor of Lakeside, Cal.

The bride-elect graduated with honors in her business-related class from Southfield-Lathrup High School. She is a trained dental assistant.

Taylor is a graduate of the San Diego Academy and works for the First Florida Building Corporation of Miami as a superintendent.

A June wedding in California is planned.
