

Competition good in girls' meet

By TOM BAER

The girls' track teams from Southfield-Lathrup and North Farmington finished near the bottom of the disappointing summary of the West Bloomfield Invitational.

Lathrup managed two team points, and North Farmington failed to score any points at all. Still, coaches from both schools were happy to participate in the third-annual West Bloomfield Invitational, one of the few multi-school track meets for high school girls.

"The meet has gotten out of hand as far as our abilities are concerned," said Lathrup coach Mike Murphy. "There were some great runners there."

North Farmington coach Pat Riley agreed. "The girls we went because the competition was just great. It's an excellent meet, and very well run. I think the competition is getting better. More girls are getting involved in track."

Walled Lake Western, which has established itself as a girls' track powerhouse under coach Sharon Young, topped the 500-yard field with 40 points. Bobbie Burgess was second with 30 points. Pontiac Central had 20, Westland John Glenn 10, and Mount Clemens 10.

Shari Russell provided Lathrup's points when she finished 15th in the two-mile run with a 12:42.1 clocking. Murphy had praise for his distance star.

"She's been coming down nicely all season, but this is the first time she's run against any real competition," he said. "She's just total determination. She has no size at all. She's only about five-foot-five and weighs maybe 90 pounds, but she runs with lots of guts. She works so hard. It's not harder, than anyone on our team."

LATHRUP'S SHUTTLE hurdle team (Chris Thomas, Bridget Mallone, Chris Schoenbeck and Sue Wright) broke a school record with a .713 performance at the West Bloomfield meet. Mallone made the semifinals in the 110-yard hurdles with a time of 1:17.

Lathrup's mile relay (Gina Rasmussen, Sue Herbert, Gina Kunkle and Rhonda Finkelshtein) finished in 4:53.2 to break another school standard. Kunkle finished eighth in the mile run (5:35.1), and teammate Joanne Jacobs finished second in her heat in the 100-yard dash (1:11.9).

North Farmington's best performance came from Mary Jewell, who finished the mile run in 5:30.8. "That's not too good a performance for Mary," Mrs. Riley said. "We know that she can do better. She went out too fast, that was her problem."

performance for North when she finished the hurdles in 1:14.8.

Most champion Walled Lake Western was led by Sue Reimer, who won two field events—the high jump (5'4") and the long jump (17'4"). Most records fell in 11 of the 13 events. Bloomfield Hills Lathrup's Kathy Wilson shattered the mile record with a 5:12.3. Birmingham Grove's Mary Heblitt established a meet record in the two mile with an 11:41.5.

In a non-league girls' track meet last Friday, Lathrup defeated North Farmington, 65-29.

Finkelshtein and Jacobs were double winners for Lathrup. Finkelshtein won the 800 (2:41.8) and the 400 (1:08.5), while Jacobs took the 200 (30.5) and the high jump (5'11"). North's Jewell won the mile (5:37.1), and also ran on the Lathrup's mile relay, which won in 5:12.3. Topolewski gave North another first when she won the shot put with a 26.74 toss.

The victory lifted Lathrup to 5-1. North fell to 0-4.
