Girl Scout Troop 831 staged "Salute to America" for parents and friends in conjunction with its Court of Awards honoring 14 girls who won the Immaculate Mary Medal, the highest award a Catholic Junior Girl Scout can

ELECTROLYSIS WORKS!

We found that out 18 years ago. And we have been helping people rid themselves of unwanted hair ever since. If you have embarrassing hair on the face, upper lip, arms, legs or thighs, it can be removed permanently. Not by gadgets, not by promised miracles, but by medically approved electrolysis.

Msgr. Beahan marks 50th anniversary

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Beahan will celebrate his 50th anniversary in the priesthood May 22. He will be honored by members of Our Lady of Sorrows parish, friends and community leaders with a reception and lunch at 1 p.m. in the Raleigh House.

The event will be preceded by a celebration of the mass, at Our Lady of Sorrows Church on Powers Road at 11 a.m. with His Eminence John Cardinal Dearden as principal celebrant.

Judge Michael Hand will act as master of ceremonies at the luncheon. Msgr. Beahan came to Farmington in 1943 as pastor of Our Lady of Sorrows. Tickets for the luncheon may be purchased for $10 each in the Farmington Parish Credit Union, 21718 Grand River.

Camp Tel Shalom enrollment opens

Camp Tel Shalom of Adat Shalom Synagogue, 2801 Middle Belt, announced its fourth camping season, a creative camping experience for 3-5 year olds beginning

July 12 for two three-week sessions.

The program will be conducted in the synagogue nursery school facilities by qualified personnel, experienced in pre-school education and camping arts for the young.

Applications are available by contacting the nursery officer 551-5180.

Neighbors meet for luncheon

The Farmington Neighbors Club will have a Bicentennial Luncheon at noon, May 19, at the Community Center, 24706 Farmington Road.

Featured guest speaker will be Peggy Harding. Dressed in her authentic 18th century costume, she will portray Abigail Adams, the wife of John Adams, second President of the United States.

The public is welcome to attend, but reservations are necessary. For information, phone Ruth Paul, 478-5728.

ROEPER CITY AND COUNTRY SCHOOL BLOOMFIELD HILLS

A school for Gifted Children where even the youngest, at age 3, is instructed by specialists in Science, Art, Mathematics and Music and has access to a library.

The learning environment in the classroom emphasizes psycho-social development, reading and reading readiness for each individual student.
