Nowak announces for county seat

Oakland County Commissioner Patrick Nowak (R-Farmington Hills) has announced his intention to seek reelection to the commission's 25th district seat. Nowak has represented the district for the past four years. The district includes Commerce Township parts of West Bloomfield, Wolverine Village, White Lake Township and Farmington Hills. While on the commission, he has served as chairman of the committee on organization, planning and building committee, building and grounds committee and vice chairman of the airport committee.

Tough take-alongs that fold up but never let you down.

Fine quality furniture...made for summer! With easy to clean tough vinyl straps, arms specially treated for outdoor use, sturdy heavy-gauge non-rusting aluminum frames, and leg glides to prevent marring, these pieces are crafted to look great for years. And you'll enjoy them immediately, because you take them home yourself. What's more, this is just a small sampling of the storable folding summer furniture you'll find at all six Englander Triangle stores. So come into the sunshine and save on the Midwest's largest selection of patio furniture. The good stuff.
